Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL.

Mr. BARTLEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Corporations for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. CROSS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.
On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, under the rules of the House, a motion to recommit at this time is out of order.

The Speaker. Under what rule does the gentleman raise his point of order?

Mr. HALL. As I understand it, Mr. Speaker, there is a special order on the calendar for the recommitment of bills.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman call for the orders of the day?

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I do.

The SPEAKER. The point is well taken, and the motion cannot be entertained at this time.

MOTION TO LAY ON TABLE.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I move that the motion be laid upon the table.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has ruled that the motion is out of order.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

Mr. SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege:

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, there has been a great deal of confusion arising out of this bill at such late hour of the day, and if there is any apology I wish to apologize, at this time, to the members for any delay to which I may have put them. It has always been the custom, so I have been told by some of the older members of the House and I know it was the custom during last session and during this session, up to this time, that when a member of the House desired to amend a bill on this side that was introduced by a Senator, he would approach either the Senator who sponsored the bill or the members of the House from that particular district. Now I understand that that has not been done, and I am simply trying to protect the bill which the Senator from Dauphin County, in all sincerity, introduced in the Senate; a bill that has real merit to it, and I ask you to support this measure when it comes up for third reading without further amendment.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer a motion to re-commit a bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. Is there any objection?

The Chair hears none.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 986, file folio 3219, entitled:

An Act authorizing municipalities to acquire the plant or system of electric light companies in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania located wholly within or partly within and partly without the territorial limits of the municipalities on page 18 of today's calendar be re-committed to the Committee on Municipal Corporations for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. HARRY A. LITTLE. Mr., Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer a motion to re-commit a bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 968, file folio 3299, entitled

An Act regulating the Levying Collection and Payment of Taxes in Boroughs on page 22 of today's calendar be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Corporations for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until 11:00 tomorrow morning.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 11:44 o'clock P. M.) the House adjourned until Tuesday, March 17, 1925, at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MARCH 17, 1925.

No. 24.

SENATE

TUESDAY, March 17th, 1925.

The Senate met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. John G. Homsher) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Edward S. Ninde, offered the following prayer:

O Lord: We thank Thee for the high-souled men and women, who, in the ages that are gone, contributed by their words and deeds to the uplift of humanity. On this anniversary day we would express our deep gratitude for that great and good man, who, more than fifteen hundred years ago, lived nobly, and wrought well not only for his island home but for the whole world. The influence of his pure and holy life has come down through all the centuries and abides with us unto this day. Whatever our national or religious bias may be, we can all unite in thanking Thee for Patrick, the great Irish Saint. Multiply such men, we pray Thee, in every land and among all peoples, that this world may be made better and more Godlike.

For Christ's sake. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. LESLIE, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

HOUSE MESSAGES.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON THE GOVERNOR.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 17, 1925.

Whereas, His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, has, by message of March sixteenth, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, advised the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly, of his desire to address the Members thereof in joint session on Tuesday, March seventeenth, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, at twelve o'clock noon, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Senators and Members of the House of Representatives are pleased to comply with the request of His Excellency, and will meet in joint session for that purpose at the time requested in said message, and be it further

Resolved, That a committee of two Senators be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and two Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall wait upon the Governor and advise him of the passage of this resolution and of their readiness to hear any message he may desire to deliver.

COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON THE GOVERNOR.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair appoints as the Committee on the part of the Senate, the Senator from Blair, Mr. Snyder, and the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Baumer.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 638, (House Bill No. 775), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of and to add sections four five and six to an act entitled "An act authorizing cities of the third class to regulate the location of business trades and industries the location size and use of buildings and the areas of yards courts and open space" approved the third day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws fifty-four) extending the provisions thereof to structures other than buildings providing for the board of appeals to review decisions of the officer charged with the enforcement of any zoning ordinance duly adopted by said city establishing appeals from the decision of said board of appeals to the court of common pleas of the respective counties and authorizing said appeals to be advanced also providing for the enforcement of zoning regulations established by said cities and providing penalties for the violation of the same

The first section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That for the purpose of promoting the public health safety order convenience prosperity [and] or general welfare cities of the third class may by ordinance regulate the location of business trades and industries the location size and use of buildings and other structures and the area of yards courts and open spaces therein and may make different regulations for different districts thereof and may alter the same but no alteration of such regulations may be made except by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the elected or appointed members of council or other local legislative body having jurisdiction. Such regulations shall provide that a board of appeals may determine and vary their application in harmony their general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I move to amend section 1 by striking out in lines seventeen, eighteen, nineteen and twenty the words "the locations of business, trades and industries; the location, size and use of buildings and other structures and the areas of yards, courts and open spaces therein," and insert in lieu thereof the words "and restrict the height, number of stories, bulk and size of buildings and other structures; the percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size, depth and width of yards, courts and other open spaces; the density of population and the location and use of buildings, structures and land for trade, industry, residence or other purpose."

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second section of the bill was read as follows and agreed to:

Section 2 The said act is hereby further amended by adding thereto the following sections to be known as sections four five and six

Section 4 The legislative body of such cities shall provide for the appointment of a board of appeals and in the regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to the authority of this act shall provide that the board of appeals may in appropriate cases and subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards make special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance in harmony with its general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained

The board of appeals shall consist of three members one of whom shall be appointed to serve until the first day of January following the adoption of the zoning ordinance one until the first day of the second January thereafter and one until the first day of the third January thereafter. Their successors shall be appointed on the expiration of their respective terms to serve three years. The appointing authority upon written charges shall have the power to remove any member for cause and after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose place becomes vacant

The board shall adopt rules in accordance with the provisions of any ordinance adopted pursuant to this act. Meetings of the board shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as the board may determine. Such chairman or in his absence the acting chairman may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. All meetings of the board shall be open to the public. The board shall keep minutes of its proceedings showing the vote of each member upon each question or if absent or failing to vote indicating such fact and shall keep records of its examinations and other official actions. Every rule or regulation every amendment or repeal thereof and every order requirement decision or determination of the board shall immediately be filed in the office of the board and shall be a public record.

Such board of appeals shall hear and decide appeals from and review any order requirement decision or determination made by an administrative official charged with the enforcement of any ordinance adopted pursuant to this act. It shall also hear and decide all matters referred to it or upon which it is required to pass under any such ordinance. Such appeal may be taken by any person aggrieved or by any officer department board or bureau of the municipality affected by any decision of the administrative officer.

Such appeal shall be taken within a reasonable time as provided by the rules of the board by filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken and with the board of appeals a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The officer from whom the appeal is taken shall forthwith transmit to the board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the board of appeals after the notice of appeal shall have been filed with him that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would in his opinion cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the board of appeals or by a court of record on application on notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown.

The board of appeals shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal give public notice thereof as well as due notice at least six days prior to the hearing by mail to the parties in interest at the address filed with the appeal and decide the same within a reasonable time. Upon the hearing any party may appear in person or by agent or by attorney.

The board of appeals shall have the following powers:

1 To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order requirement decisions or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this act or of any ordinance adopted pursuant thereto.

2 To hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance upon which such board is required to pass under such ordinance.

3 To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest where owing to special conditions a literal enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance will result in unnecessary hardship so that the spirit of the ordinance shall be observed and substantial justice done.

In exercising the above-mentioned powers such board may in conformity with the provisions of this act reverse or affirm wholly or partly or may modify the order requirement decision or determination appealed from and may make such order requirement decision or determination as ought to be made and to that end shall have all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken.

Any person or persons jointly or severally aggrieved by any decision of the board of appeals or any taxpayer or any officer department board or bureau of the municipality may present to the court of common pleas of the respective county a petition duly verified setting forth that such decision is illegal in whole or in part specifying the grounds of the illegality. Such petition must be presented to the court within thirty days after the filing of the decision in office of the board.

Upon the presentation of such petition the court may allow an appeal directed to the board of appeals to review such decision of the board of appeals and shall prescribe therein the time within which a return thereto must be made and served upon the relator's attorney which shall not be less than ten days and may be extended by the court. The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from but the court may on application on notice to the board and on due cause shown grant a restraining order.

The board of appeals shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by such writ. The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified.

If upon the hearing it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter it may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same to the court with his findings of fact and conclusions of law which shall constitute a part of the proceedings upon which the determination of the court shall be made. The court may reverse or affirm wholly or partly or may modify the decision brought up for review.

Costs shall not be allowed against the board unless it shall appear to the court that it acted with gross negligence or in bad faith or with malice in making the decision appealed from.

All issues in any proceeding under this section shall have preference over all other civil actions and proceedings.

Section 5 The legislative body of such cities may provide by ordinance for the enforcement of this act and of any ordinance or regulation made thereunder. A violation of this act or of such ordinance or regulation is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor and such legislative body may provide for the punishment thereof by fine or imprisonment or both. It is also empowered to provide civil penalties for such violation.

Section 6 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of the act. It is hereby declared as a legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein.

The title of the bill was read as follows:

An Act to amend Section one of and to add Sections four five and six to an act entitled "An Act authorizing cities of the third class to regulate the location of business trades and industries the location size and use of buildings and the areas of yards, courts and open spaces" approved the third day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws fifty-four) extending the provisions thereof to structures other than buildings providing for a board of appeals to review decisions of the officer charged with the enforcement of any zoning ordinance duly adopted by said cities establishing appeals from the decision of said board of appeals to the court of common pleas of the respective counties and authorizing said appeals to be advanced also providing for the enforcement of zoning regulations established by cities and providing penalties for the violation of the same.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I move to amend the title by striking out the words "extending the provisions thereof to structures other than buildings" and insert therefor "providing for regulating and restricting the height, number of stories, bulk and size of buildings and other structures; the percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size, depth and width of yards, courts and other open spaces; the density of population and the location and use of buildings, structures and land for trade, industry, residence or other purposes."

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section six of an act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and nineteen) entitled "An act regulating certain political parties providing for and regulating the nomination of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices the election of delegates and alternate delegates to National party conventions and of certain party officers including State committeemen a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the offices of President of the United States and the payment by the several counties and their reimbursement by the State of the expenses of the same authorizing the State committee of a political party to make and to alter amend and revoke rules and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein and repealing inconsistent legislation" which was amended by an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and forty-four) entitled "An act to amend the first sixth and seventh sections of an act entitled 'An act regulating certain political parties providing for and regulating the nominations of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices the election of delegates and alternate delegates to National party conventions and of certain party officers including State committeemen a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the office of President of the United States and the payment by the several counties and their reimbursement by the State of the expenses of the same authorizing the State committee of a political party to make and to alter amend and revoke rules and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein and repealing inconsistent legislation' approved the twelfth day of July Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen so as to manage the time for filing petitions of nomination and the time for the organization of the State committees" is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 6 The names of candidates for nomination as President of the United States and the names of all other party candidates shall be printed upon the official ballot of a designated party upon the filing of nomination petitions in their behalf signed by qualified electors of the State or of the political district or division as the case may be within which the nomination is to be made or election is to be held and the filing of affidavits by the candidates as provided in this act and the names of no candidates shall be printed upon an official ballot of a political party to be used at any primary unless such petitions shall have been filed and unless such candidates except they be candidates for the office of President of the United States shall have filed affidavits as hereinafter provided

(a) Each signer of a nomination petition shall sign but one such petition for each office to be filled and shall declare that he is a member of the party designated in such petition Provided however That where there are to be elected two or more persons to the same office each signer may sign petitions for as many candidates for such office as and no more than he could vote for at the succeeding election He shall also declare therein that he is a qualified elector of the county therein named and in case the nomination is not to be made or candidates are not to be elected by the electors of the State at large of the political district or division therein named in which the nomination is to be made or the election is to be held He shall add his occupation and residence giving city borough or township with street and number if any and shall also add the date of signing No nomination petition shall be circulated prior to forty (40) days before the last day on which such petition may be filed and no signature shall be counted unless it bears date within forty (40) days of the last day for filing the same

Said nomination petition may be on one or more sheets and different sheets must be used for signers residents in different counties Each sheet shall have appended thereto the affidavit of some person not necessarily a signer and not necessarily the same person on each sheet setting forth that the affiant is a qualified elector of the State or of the political district or division as the case may be referred to in said petition his residence giving city borough or township with street number if any that the signers signed with full knowledge of the contents of the petition that their respective residences are correctly stated therein that they all reside in the county named in the affidavit and that each signed on the date set opposite his name and that to the best of affiant's knowledge and belief the signers are qualified electors and members of the designated party of the State or of the political district or division as the case may be

(b) Each candidate for any State county or city office shall file with his nomination petition his affidavit stating his residence with street and number if any and his post office address his election district the name of the office for which he consents to be a candidate that he is eligible for such office [and] that he will not knowingly violate any election law or any law regulating and limiting nominations expenses and prohibiting corrupt practices in connection therewith and that he is not a candidate for nomination for the same office by any party other than the one designated in such petition In no event shall the name of any person consenting to be a candidate for nomination for any one office to be printed as a candidate for such office upon the official primary ballot of more than one party Provided That in no event shall any person's name be printed upon the official ballot of any party as a delegate State committeeman National committeeman or party officer unless he is a qualified elector of said party

In the case of a candidate for nomination as President of the United States it shall not be necessary for such candidate to file the affidavit required in this section to be filed by candidates but the post office address of such candidate shall be stated in such nomination petition

(c) Each candidate for election as delegate or alternate delegate to a National party convention may include with his affidavit the statement hereinafter set forth in this section but his failure to include such statement shall not be valid ground on the part of the Secretary of the Commonwealth for refusal to receive and file his nomination petition Such statement if any be made shall be in substantially the following form

Delegate's Statement

I hereby declare to the voters of my political party in the (here insert "State of Pennsylvania" if a delegate or alternate delegate at large otherwise insert "..... District") that if elected and in attendance as a delegate to the National convention of the party I shall with all fidelity to the best of my judgment and ability in all matters coming before the convention support the candidate for President of the United States who shall have received the highest number of votes cast in the (here insert "State" if a delegate or alternate delegate at large otherwise insert "..... District") by the voters of my party for said office at the ensuing primary and shall use all honorable means within my power to aid in securing the nomination for such candidate for President

(Signature of candidate for delegate or alternate delegate)
On the ballot used at a primary after or under the name of each candidate for delegate or alternate delegate to a National party convention shall appear the words "Promise to support popular choice of party in the (here insert "State" if a delegate or alternate delegate at large otherwise insert "..... District" for President" or "Does not promise to support popular choice of party in the (here insert "State" if a delegate or alternate delegate at large otherwise insert "..... District") for President" according as if the candidate included or failed to include the above statement with his affidavit

Section 2 That section eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 8 No nomination petition shall be refused or set aside except for

(a) Material error or defects apparent on the face thereof or on the face of the appended or accompanying affidavits or

(b) Material alterations made after signing without the consent of the signers or

(c) Want of sufficient number of genuine signatures of persons qualified with respect to age sex residence and citizenship to be electors

(d) The fact that nomination petitions have been filed for printing of the name of the same person for the same office upon the official ballot of more than one designated party

The invalidity of any sheet of a petition shall not affect the validity of such petition if a sufficient petition remains after eliminating such invalid sheet

Application to set aside any nomination petition shall be by petition to the court of common pleas of the county in which such petition has been filed setting forth specifically the matters objected to and must be filed within five days after the last day for filing said nomination petition Upon the presentation of such a petition the court shall make an order fixing a time for hearing which shall not be later than ten days after the last day for filing said nomination petition and specifying the time and manner of notice that shall be given to the candidate named in the nomination petition sought to be set aside

If the matters objected to are such as are specified in subdivision (a) of this section the court upon hearing the case may in its discretion permit amendments within such time and upon such terms as to payment of costs as the court may specify

In case the petition to set aside a nomination petition is dismissed the petitioner shall pay the whole of the costs of the proceeding including all witness fees

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 630.

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 504, (House Bill No. 630), entitled:

An Act to further amend clause three section one of an act approved the eighth day of May one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four (Pamphlet Laws six hundred forty-four) entitled "A further supplement to the act entitled 'An act concerning divorces'" as amended by taking away the right of support or alimony in certain cases was defeated on final passage.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I voted "No."

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I voted "No."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of this bill.

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, and members of the Senate, this bill was introduced by Mr. Mathay of the House, and he feels that in view of the fact that the numbering of the bill in the file of the bill was of such a confused character that many of the Senators did not understand the purport of the bill; and I have agreed to express his position on the bill to the Senate, in order that the bill may receive the consideration he feels it deserves.

The bill relates to alimony in divorce actions. Under the law as it now stands, where a husband has secured a divorce from his wife on the ground of cruel and barbarous treatment or indignities to the person, the Court may, if it desires, grant alimony to the wife. The sponsor of the bill feels that that condition should not exist but that where the husband has secured a divorce from the wife on the ground of cruel and barbarous treatment, that in such cases he should be relieved from any question of paying her alimony.

Now, that is the situation upon which, perhaps, men may differ. The sponsor of the bill feels, however, that the bill should have been passed, and not defeated; and I said to him that in view of the situation, and in view of the fact that I had voted against the bill, I would be perfectly willing to explain his position on the bill to the Senate, in order that the bill might receive more mature consideration.

Mr. GRISWOLD. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Stites.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Stites, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. GRISWOLD. Mr. President, is it not a fact that a great many divorces are granted on the ground of cruel and barbarous treatment, that being merely a subterfuge; and, it seems to me, that the Court now has authority to grant alimony or not grant alimony. Is that not sufficient?

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I should say it is not a subterfuge. Of course the wife under the Act of Assembly is entitled to notice of the proceeding, and if she wishes to defend she was a perfect right to come in and do it. Mr. Mathay feels that where the wife has by cruel and barbarous treatment rendered her husband's condition intolerable and life burdensome, that under those circumstances she should not be in a position to come in and annoy him further by demanding alimony. Where a husband has established by good ground that he is entitled to a divorce by reason of the treatment he has been subjected to at the hands of his wife, and when he has received a final decree at the hands of the Court the matter should end there and he should not afterwards be subjected to an application on her part for alimony. I think there is a great deal of justice in his position.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this bill merely takes away, removes from the statute books, rather, the only ground upon which permanent alimony is given in this State in divorce cases. If this bill were to provide that where the husband is cruel to his wife the Court may order him to pay alimony after the final decree is granted, there might be some merit in it; but I do not see any reason in the world why a husband should be compelled to pay permanent alimony to his wife after the granting of an absolute divorce, merely because that wife had been cruel and barbarous to her husband. In other words, it compensates the wife for her cruelty to her husband. As I say, it is the only case in which permanent alimony is granted, and I can see no reason for leaving this law on the statute books.

It is true, the present law provides that the court may or may not grant alimony but I see no reason why the court should be burdened with even considering the granting of permanent alimony to a wife who has given her husband ground for a divorce; and I hope, therefore, that the Senators, who, through misapprehension or otherwise, saw fit to vote against this bill last evening will reconsider their vote and vote for it at this time.

Mr. CULBERTSON. Mr. President, the practice shows the judges very seldom have granted alimony in cases of this kind, but there are some cases where the facts are so very, very, close and where the determination of the case probably will be decided along the lines of this matter of alimony,—it is not compulsory for the Judge to grant alimony,—the Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas, should have the right to determine, in their discretion whether or not a woman is entitled to alimony under the facts presented before him.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, with much pleasure.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, would this not be the means for the granting of a number of questionable decrees in divorce where the proceedings are based upon the question of cruel and barbarous treatment?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, as I say, it would have no effect on that question whatsoever. The only ground now, as I stated before on which the Court allows permanent alimony is where the wife has been cruel to her husband. This applies only to absolute divorce, not in the case of separation from bed and board—which are the cases in which permanent alimony is usually granted. And this would merely take away that one exception, which, as has been said, is very seldom used; and, as far as I can see, there is no real reason why that exception should be made.

As I understand the women in these days want equality as between husband and wife, and I see no reason why they should not be given this additional piece of legislation in order to bring men and women more nearly equal, if possible.

And the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, March 17, 1925.

The House met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee this morning as we enter upon the duties of this day, that Thou wilt give unto us a realizing sense of what Thou art and that our little systems have their day; they have their day and cease to be; they are but broken lights of Thee; Thou, God, art more than they. Be with us, keep us by Thy grace in seeking to do the things which are right and which are eternal. Bless the Speaker and the members of this House, all those who are here, the employees and the newspaper men and all of us, for Christ's sake. Amen.

RESOLUTION.

RELATIVE TO THE REQUEST OF HIS EXCELLENCY,
THE GOVERNOR, TO ADDRESS THE JOINT ASSEMBLY.

Mr. CRAIG offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, March 17, 1925.

Whereas, His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, has, by message of March sixteenth, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five advised the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly, of his desire to address the Members thereof in joint session on Tuesday, March seventeenth, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, at twelve o'clock noon, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Senators and Members of the House of Representatives are pleased to comply with the request of His Excellency, and will meet in joint session for that purpose at the time requested in said message, and be it further

Resolved, That a committee of two Senators be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and two Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall wait upon the Governor and advise him of the passage of this resolution and of their readiness to hear any message he may desire to deliver.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE.

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a committee on behalf of the House the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Craig, and the gentlemen from Jefferson, Mr. Irvin.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 949, (Senate Bill No. 39, entitled:

An Act to provide for an additional system for the collection of State and county taxes in cities of the third class

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HANTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The sponsor of this bill is Senator Earnest. Is there any one here who is familiar with the bill who will permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. HANTZ. Mr. Speaker, I wish to be informed as to what advantage there is in collecting city, county and State taxes in cities of the third class over and above what are now in vogue.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, the advantage as indicated by the bill is that the county commissioners of counties in which there are third class cities may decide to have one tax collector, or they may continue under the present system. It gives them the opportunity to take away the present system if they so desire and the people of the county wish it.

Mr. HANTZ. Mr. Speaker, do you figure that that will be an advantage to a city of the third class? In the first place, we have a system of tax collecting in York city that is entirely satisfactory to us. We would like to know what advantage you have to offer us that will benefit us in presenting this bill.

Mr. HALL. I did not hear you, will you kindly repeat the question.

Mr. HANTZ. Mr. Speaker, in other words, we are opposed to this measure, you understand that? I want it distinctly understood that York is entirely satisfied the way we collect our taxes. We do not want any changes. Now, if this bill don't interfere with the present system we think it will be perfectly satisfactory.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from York, it does not interfere with the present system. It simply provides in those counties where they desire to change the system that they may do so, it is optional with the counties.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—163.

JOINT SESSION.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR DAVID J. DAVIS Presiding.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR DAVIS. The Assembly will be in order.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I now present His Excellency, Governor Pinchot, who is to address us.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR DAVIS. Members of the Assembly we are assembled in joint session for the purpose of listening to a message from his Excellency the Governor. I take pleasure at this time in presenting the Honorable Gifford Pinchot, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

GOVERNOR PINCHOT:

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The United Dry Bill has been before the Legislature for six weeks. During that time it has been subjected to criticism from various interests which feared it might infringe upon their rights or interfere with their customary ways of doing business.

The complaints thus made have been met by the Senate and House Committees on Law and Order in a spirit of the utmost fairness, and by amendment every reasonable objection has been removed. There is not now a single sound reason of any sort for apprehension or complaint on the part of any legitimate interest.

Among all these objections not one, to my knowledge, has dared openly to attack the object of the bill, or to dispute its complete ability to accomplish its purpose. Public examination of the measure has served only to strengthen the confidence of its friends, and the fear of its enemies, that if passed it will actually do what it is intended to do.

The bill has not been weakened. While every fair criticism or objection has been met, the bill is fully as powerful now to effect its purpose as it was when first laid before the General Assembly. It is today a better adjusted bill than it was, and a stronger one.

Because of all this discussion of details, public and legislative attention has been focused on amendments instead of on the two great purposes of the bill. The first is to stop at its source the flood of poisonous and illegal drink which is costing our citizens so dearly in money, in health, and in life itself. The second is to uphold the Constitution of the United States, to defend and support which every public officer takes oath when he takes office. No one has dared to attack these objects, for they are right beyond dispute.

In asking for the passage of this bill, I do not ask for any needless action. The enactment of this legislation is most pressingly necessary. To check the flood of poison liquor at its source is the shortest and surest way to end this appalling evil. The reason why we have not made greater progress in law enforcement is because under the law as it now stands we cannot cut off the chief sources of poisonous and illegal drink. This bill will do it.

A survey of 151 saloons in all parts of Pittsburgh completed last week showed that both whiskey and high powered beer were being sold openly in 89 of them, and high powered beer in all the rest. It is notorious that Philadelphia is the worst city in America so far as alcohol is concerned, and as to this we have Federal authority for saying that conditions are worse in Philadelphia today than they have ever been.

I have already laid before you conclusive evidence of fraud on a huge scale in the manufacture and distribution of denatured alcohol in the City of Philadelphia. Although six weeks have since elapsed, these facts have not been and they cannot be attacked.

The profits reaped by the men who poison for money are enormous. They are publicly estimated by the Federal Prohibition Director of the Philadelphia District as amounting, in the territory under his supervision, to at least $100,000,000 a year. That huge sum is taken from our citizens fraudulently because the victims of the fraud pay for a product they never receive. But the money loss, vast as it is, is of little moment compared with the loss in human lives.

A Philadelphian whose wife was poisoned within the last ten days writes to the Chairman of the Law and Order Committee of the House:

"I am writing to inform you that my wife died as a result of drinking whiskey which she purchased in the neighborhood without any difficulty whatsoever."

"I do not like to harrass you with my trouble, but it seems to me that if you gentlemen would do something to prevent the sale of this poisonous liquor, it would prevent a further loss of life from this cause."

I withhold this man's name and address for reasons which any considerate man will understand.

A woman whose husband recently died of poison drink in Philadelphia makes this appeal:

"Dear Governor Pinchot:

"Please do something to stop the sale of poison by the bootleggers of Philadelphia. I am a widow today because these bootleggers sold their poison to my husband and killed him last January.

"I appeal to you because I know that you are doing everything in your power to stop the sale of this terrible liquor that made orphans of my three children.

"Nothing can bring back my husband to me but something can be done to prevent other mothers and wives from suffering as I have suffered.

"I have read in the papers that you are trying to have a law passed which will make it impossible for the bootleggers to get this poison rum. I pray that you will be successful, for even today the bootleggers in my neighborhood are still selling the same poison that killed my husband.

"I know that if the members of the Legislature could see the misery that this liquor brought to my home, not one of them would vote against a law that would save other women and children from the terrible thing that has happened to me.

"For the sake of the innocent women and children of Pennsylvania I pray to God that you will win your fight against the bootleggers."

This woman has been broken down by her misfortune. For this reason I withhold her name and address. It would be unfair to add publicity to her other troubles, which are already overwhelming.

I have verified the statements made in both these letters.

If this bill fails there will be hundreds more such cases within the next two years. In this bill you are dealing not only with the enforcement of the law, not only with the abolition of crime, but also with the lives of men and the happiness and security of women and children from one end of this Commonwealth to the other.

The Coroner of Philadelphia is authority for the statement that alcohol is responsible for about twelve deaths per day by murder, accident, or poisoning in Philadelphia alone, or more than 4,000 victims of this hateful traffic every year. So deadly is this poisonous drink that a recent bulletin of the United States Census shows double the number of deaths in Pennsylvania from alcoholism in 1923 as in 1922, and no one doubts that the loss in 1924 is still higher. It is very significant that when the deaths doubled, the amount of denatured alcohol released also doubled in the same time.

4,000 lives are a thousand more than were killed on the Union side in the Battle of Gettysburg. 4,000 lives a year are worth saving.

Can any man justify the continuance of this traffic in crime, disease, and death? You have the power to end it. If you allow it to continue, yours will be the responsibility.

If this bill is defeated, the men responsible will put into the hands of the dry people of Pennsylvania a whip of scorpions to drive out of power in this State the men who set the interests of the bootleggers, or the interests of a political machine, above the Constitution of the United States and the lives of their fellow citizens. If the wet interests of Pennsylvania defeat this bill they will raise up for their own undoing the most powerful of political forces—the outraged public opinion of the decent God-fearing men and women of this Commonwealth, whose moral principles they will have slapped in the face, and whose material interests they will have sacrificed to the personal profit of criminals low enough knowingly to sell poison to our people.

No one can say that the vast majority of our people are not eager to see the criminals who flood this State with poison liquor driven from their abominable traffic. No one can say that the people of Pennsylvania are not overwhelmingly in favor of compelling the law breaking brewers to respect the Constitution of the United States and the laws of this Commonwealth.

No one can deny that the defeat of this bill would be taken by the law breaking brewers and the traffickers in poison liquor as a license not only to continue but to expand their lawless and criminal operations. No one can deny that the defeat of this bill would be paid for with the lives of thousands of Pennsylvanians, victims of one of the most despicable traffics this or any other country has ever seen.

The passage of this bill will check the flood of poison at its source, protect our people in their lives and property, strengthen the forces of law and order and decency throughout the Commonwealth, and hurt nothing and nobody but the bootleggers and their abominable trade.

I repeat that this is not a question of light wine and beer. It is not a question of unadulterated liquor of any sort. It is a question of stopping the flood of poison drink poured out over this State—a flood of crime, misfortune, disease, and death which ruins and kills our people by the thousands. I repeat that respect for law lies at the heart of all good citizenship, of civilization, of safety for persons, and safety for property. The Constitution of the United States is openly defied in Pennsylvania. It must be vindicated.

The issue is not whether this bill is wholly perfect. Whether perfect or not, it would still be subjected to attack. The issue in this bill is whether law or crime shall rule in the State of Pennsylvania.

That issue is the greatest moral issue before our people. On the one side is gathered every evil force within this Commonwealth. On the other are all the churches, all the organizations of women, all the defenders of law and order. Every force of every kind that stands for righteousness in Pennsylvania is behind this bill, and behind them all the Constitution of the United States. Again I ask you, with which side will you stand?

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR DAVIS. The business for which the General Assembly met in joint session having been transacted, the joint session is adjourned. The Members of the Senate will kindly return to the Senate Chamber for the consideration of the calendar.

SPEAKER BLUETT IN THE CHAIR.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. BIDELSPACHER, of this act or the act to which this is an amendment shall be liable to a penalty of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for every such violation Said penalties to be recovered in the manner in which similar penalties are now by law recoverable

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend title by striking out on page two the words ("prohibiting the recording of deeds and transfers of certain properties until the streets and roads abutting upon or bounded within the same have been legally established or approved by the commissioner")

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be made in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 760, as follows:

A Supplement to the act approved the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws six hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to and regulating the use and operation of motor vehicles and vehicles propelled by or trailing after motor vehicles requiring the registration of the same and the licensing of all operators thereof providing the fees therefor and the disposition of such fees prohibiting the unauthorized use of and tampering with motor vehicles limiting and defining the powers of cities boroughs incorporated towns townships and counties as to the regulation of the use and equipment of motor vehicles and the taxing registration or licensing thereof imposing certain duties on the State Highway Commissioner and on proprietors of public garages providing procedure and penalties for violations thereof and the disposition of fines collected and regulating the service of process and proceedings in actions for damages arising from the use of any motor vehicle" providing for the local registration of motor vehicles and licensing of operators and issuing of learners' permits by the county commissioners

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in any county the county commissioners or city commissioners may if they so elect act as agents of the Department of Highways in the issuing of registration certificates and plates for the registration of motor vehicles and for the issuing of operator's licenses to persons who have held such licenses during the preceding year and for the issuing of learner's permits as provided for by the act to which this is a supplement and its amendments Whenever the county commissioners or city commissioners of any county desire to act as such agents of the Department of Highways they shall so notify the Secretary of Highways on or before the first day of October of the year preceding each year for which they shall desire to so act

The Secretary of Highways shall furnish such county or city commissioners with the necessary books blanks forms certificates licenses and registration plates

Section 2 The county or city commissioners shall remit to the Secretary of Highways on the first of each month all fees collected by them during the preceding month for such registration and licenses together with any interest allowed on deposits before said money is remitted

Section 3 The county or city commissioners shall remit to the Secretary of Highways a complete daily record of such registration and licenses and of all permits issued during each day.

Section 4 For the services provided for by this act the county or city commissioners shall collect from the person applying for registration or license a fee of twenty-five cents in addition to the fees now provided for Said additional fee shall be paid into the County treasury for the use of the county and may be used for extra clerical service in carrying out the provisions of this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, with your kind indulgence I wish to explain this bill in a few words. Really there has been since this bill has been introduced quite an activity by the bureau in the negative form. I wish to call your attention to the merits of this bill and I ask you to judge for yourselves whether this bill is not a bill in justice for the protection of your constituents at home; whether this bill is not a bill which is required for the protection of each and every man throughout this Commonwealth who owns or operates a machine. In the first place I wish to call your attention to the fact that originally this bill was drafted for the county of Philadelphia alone. Since that time various members of this House came to me and asked me whether it would not be possible to make this as an enabling act to let each and every county throughout this Commonwealth have this privilege because their constituents asked them to bring this matter to my attention. I wanted to be fair and I said to you gentlemen, "If this is a benefit to your home county I have no desire to bar any county." Therefore I agreed to amend the bill so as to make it an enabling act. In other words it is optional in each and every county in this State to take the opportunity if they so desire, they have this privilege through the County Commisisoners acting as agents for the Commonwealth to issue licenses and also permits.

Now then, in the first place, this bill provides nothing but what the law says at the present time. The only difference is the county commissioners of each and every county act as agents for the Highway Commissioner to issue automobiles licenses and also permits for driver's license. For their service the applicants pay an additional fee of twenty-five cents to the county commissioners. This fee is used for defraying the expenses at the home office for clerical hire and so on, and if there is any money left at the end of the year it goes back to the county treasurer for county use. The State of Pennsylvania under this act does not lose one cent by this act. The act provides that full returns of the licenses issued must be made monthly, and in addition to that that all moneys which are deposited in the various banks, the interest also must be returned to the State Highway Department.

I want to call your attention to the fact that on February 19, after this bill had been inrtoduced there appeared in the Philadelphia Inquirer an editorial, which with your kind permission I will read to you.

It is difficult to imagine any reason why the bill introduced by Representative Dilsheimer of Philadelphia in the State Legislature to provide for the sale of motor licenses "over the counter" in Philadelphia should not be enacted into law promptly. The details are not of particular concern and should be worked out fairly both for the interests of the State and of the motorists. The principle involved, however, is very clear. It is that public convenience will be served by the establishment of offices for the issuance of motor licenses in large communities like Philadelphia, where the maintenance of complex filing systems and other necessary paraphernalia, and a large clerical staff, is warranted by the business to be transacted.

Representative Dilsheimer's bill simply proposes that the County Commissioners shall act as agents of the State Highway Department in Philadelphia, shall make daily reports of all transactions to Harrisburg and financial returns once a month. An additional charge of twenty-five cents per license is to be made to defray the additional cost of the clerical force maintained locally. Although the necessity of this additional charge is not aparent, few if any motorists would object to it if an office were maintained here at which they could obtain licenses promptly and efficiently. In fact, a much larger premium is now paid to the agencies which maintain courier service between this city and Harrisburg. The effect would be felt particularly at the close of every year; and the summary arrests last January of many motorists who failed to receive their tags in time, though they had applied in 1924, would be obviated.

New Jersey and New York maintain such branch offices. There seems to be no reason why Pennsylvania should not provide this convenience also.

Now then, ladies and gentlemen the State Highway authorities have been lobbying against this bill in this House since it has been introduced. I want to say to you and I leave it to your own fair judgment, if this bill does not have merit, why do they come here and lobby against the bill? I am the last man to criticize any department, but ladies and gentlemen no doubt nearly every one of you had the experience the way I had it only yesterday again. I called the attention yesterday of the chief in the Highway Department to a case where eight weeks ago a personal friend of mine made application for his drivers license, made his application according to law and paid his fee. Up to March 4th, he had not received any answer whatsoever in reference to his communication to the State Highway Department. On March 4th, he sent a registered letter, for which he holds the receipt and up to date he has not even received an answer. I want to ask you ladies and gentlemen of this House is that fairness to our constituents? You say, "Yes, we are here to be judge of our actions, we are here to protect our constituents and the public in general and not individual departments." From past experience you all know on some bills mistatements have been made by different departments. I leave it to your own judgment whether this bill is not a fair and just bill. They cannot come here and say that this bill takes so much away from the State. I was very careful, ladies and gentlemen in having this bill drafted so they could not come with that excuse.

This morning the State Highway Department sent out this letter, and no doubt everyone of you received a copy of it wherein it is stated that there will be an additional burden of about one million dollars a year to the automobile owners. Now then, ladies and gentlemen, if the owners of automobile licenses are willing to pay the additional twenty-five cents, which they are, there is no reason why they should not do so since they are not now getting justice and are not getting proper service. There in the county they can get proper service if they are allowed to pay twenty-five cents and not be humiliated and brought to the magistrates' office during the month of January, sentenced by the magistrate and humiliated by fine and arrest. I want to be fair to everybody and I want to ask you whether this bill is not a just bill. I don't believe there has been a bill introduced in this session, or in any other session in this House, which was any more just or had more merit than this bill has.

Ladies and gentlemen there is another point I want to call your attention to. At the present time for each and every automobile tagged which is sent to the automobile owners it costs the State Highway Department ten cents for postage. Under this act that can easily be eliminated and the State will save from fifty to one hundred thousand dollars a year. I want to call your attention to the fact that any county which sees fit can take the opportunity that this act presents, if they desire to do so. There is no compulsion. Therefore I ask in fairness to this bill, in fairness to your constituents, in fairness to the public in general throughout this Commonwealth to support this bill. Use your own judgment and vote for this bill favorably.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Philadelphia has very candidly invited a frank discussion of what his bill involves. Personally, I think the bill is a mistake. I think it is a mistake from the point of view of organizing the functions of government; and I think it is a mistake, secondly, to make a change of this kind proposed at the present time. In the first place, in organizing the functions of government, we made the registration of motor vehicles a function of State government. The bill proposes to put this into the hands of the county commissioners to constitute themselves agents for the State government and to open local offices. That interferes with the uniformity of system; it interferes with the uniformity of licenses, where we changed the conduct of these activities and places an extra expense upon the motorist; and it seems to me it is a bad principal for the functions of the State to be subdivided among county officials, for whom the State Department cannot be responsible. It is from that point of view that I think it is bad in principle. But when you come down to the administrative question, I think it is worse, for this reason: That, as I see it, the Department of Highways, last year, under the change which they instituted, did a very good job, and one which met with general approval throughout the Commonwealth. Now, it may be that with the increase of motor vehicles, if they should continue to increase in the same ratio as they have in the past few years, it may be that in time some subdivision of this work may be necessary, but certainly at the time when they have put into operation principles and methods that, so far as I know, have universally commended themselves to the people of the Commonwealth, it seems to me it would be a mistake to change the system; it seems to me it would be a mistake to allow them to jack the job by this plan; but if the time comes that they cannot handle their job as satisfactorily as they did last year, then it will be sufficient time for such legislation.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether he is aware of the number of arrests which were made in the city of Philadelphia last January on account of the owners of automobiles not having received their license cards in time?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I don't know the number; I know there were some arrests made.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. You don't know the number of arrests made?

Mr. EDMONDS. No.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Are you aware of the number of cases that members of this House at the present time have taken up with the Department, some of them as high as twenty cases, where their constituents have not received their owners' and drivers' licenses?

Mr. EDMONDS. I know I have taken up some cases of that kind myself, but I would rather take them up at one place than have to take them up at two.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Well, under this Act, Mr. Speaker, I do not believe it is necessary for any person to take it up with two people. If you make your application in your home county and you are rightly served, there and then you get your license as long as you comply with the law; in other words, it is optional with any individual. If a gentleman chooses to make the application in his home county, he has to go down and pay a fee of twenty-five cents, but he would much rather do that than have the delays. I am informed by the two automobile clubs in the city of Philadelphia, who are back of this bill, that they would rather pay fifty cents than be annoyed in the manner and way it is now.

Now then, Mr. Speaker, I wish to say further that the automobile system has been tried out in the Highway Department since the existing law has been in effect, as my friend said, and they found out something else. I think they have tried long enough, and I think the public has suffered long enough. I think it is our duty and the duty of every member in this House to do justice to those who are suffering. We do not have to care for any Department. We are making the laws here and those laws must be observed by the proper Departments; and I claim today that the public in general, who are owners of automobiles, are suffering from the negligence of the Highway Department and therefore it is our duty to remedy these deficiencies and protect the public in general; and therefore I again ask you to vote favorably on this bill.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Dilsheimer.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Yes, sir.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I did not hear the gentleman exactly because there was so much noise around here. You say a number of Philadelphians who did not get their licenses were arrested for running without them?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. They were, yes, sir.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Do you think that it was right to enforce the law on these people?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Well, it is the law.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Well then, it is all right.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. The law is now on the statute books to that effect.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. You are in favor of law enforcement, then?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. What do you say? Mr. Speaker, in answer to that question—

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia repeat what he said—it was on the statute books? I understand you to say the law is on the statute books?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Yes, sir.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Then you are in favor of law enforcement?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Yes, sir.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. That is all.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker and ladies of this House, in answer to my friend from Armstrong, I want to say that I am in favor of proper law enforcement, but legitimate law enforcement; and if the law is bad, then I believe we ought to amend it.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. That is fine.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. I believe in law enforcement, and I believe every member in this House is in favor of law enforcement in a proper manner; but when a law is bad, then it is our duty to amend it and to remedy that law. That is what we are here for.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think all the members of the House realize that this bill in its present form does not merely apply to first class cities, the City of Philadelphia, but to every county in the State. It seems to me that any bill that is calculated to destroy the efficiency of the Highway Department is not a proper bill in the first place. In the second place it will without any doubt add a very great deal to the burden already upon the shoulders of the taxpayers of this State. In the third place I submit that whatever the proponents of the bill may hope from the enactment of this measure, the experience in the State of New York where a somewhat similar system is in practice, does not justify the hopes of the proponents of this bill. In the fourth place we must all remember that we have at the present time a law which was enacted only two years ago, which is regarded as a model of its kind. It should have a longer test before being thrown into the scrap basket. I submit to the members of the House we should go very slow before we take this extremely radical step. I therefore ask you to vote no on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED
FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives, numbered and entitled as follows:

House Bill No. 99.

An Act validating proceedings and ordinances of borough councils providing for joint grading paving curbing and draining of public highways by the borough and county borough and state or the borough county and State and validating municipal liens therefor

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to announce that if the House has no objection it might be necessary this evening to have our first night session. It will depend of course, of how we can get along with our calendar in the session this afternoon. The Chair does not desire night sessions if they can be avoided, but if it is necessary, the Chair believes the House would rather have them in order to make proper advancement with the calendar.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the Chair will declare a recess until 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none.

Whereupon at (1.20 o'clock P. M.) the House took a recess until 4:30 o'clock P. M.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 4:30 o'clock P. M.

SPEAKER BLUETT IN THE CHAIR.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Armstrong, who, I understand, is in charge of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Armstrong, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WILSON. I desire to draw the gentleman's attention to page 3, section 3, line 2, of the bill, to the word "crude" in front of the word "methanol", and ask if it was not his understanding that this word "crude" was to be eliminated from the bill?

Mr. ARMSTRONG. That refers to wood alcohol?

Mr. WILSON. Yes.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Yes it was.

Mr. WILSON. Wasn't that your understanding?

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Yes, that word was to be eliminated.

Mr. WILSON. I have in my hand, Mr. Armstrong, an amendment to this bill which simply strikes out the word "crude" and makes no other change in the bill. Have you any objection to the amendment?

Mr. ARMSTRONG. I have not.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 3, page 3, line 2, by striking out the word "crude"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Bradford, Mr. Wilson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Bradford, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Is that the second line on page 3, Mr. Wilson?

Mr. WILSON. Yes.

Mr. SOWERS. What are those words "crude methanol"; what do they mean?

Mr. WILSON. They mean wood alcohol.

Mr. SOWERS. Who put in the amendment excluding wood alcohol?

Mr. WILSON. It was put in by the committee at the time this thing was agreed upon but the word "crude" was not to be there.

Mr. SOWERS. Your amendment merely eliminates the word crude?

Mr. WILSON. Yes. And nothing else.

Mr. SOWERS. Don't you think we ought to keep the word "crude" in the whole bill?

Mr. WILSON. I decline to answer the question.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, on the spur of the moment I do not know why "crude" should go out of this bill. It surely must have been gone over very carefully. I am quite sure that no member who might be labelled "wet" put "crude" in the bill. If it got in, it was when it was originally written, and, it seems to me, that "crude" ought still remain in the bill, and I would ask the members to vote down this amendment.

Mr. WELLS. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the protest of the gentleman from Philadelphia, wood alcohol seems to be a product that is absolutely poison and from all the information I have should not have been included in this bill. By an error the word "crude" was inserted in this amendment, but wood alcohol is not only crude but there is also a refined product of wood alcohol. Whether crude or refined, chemists will tell you that it is absolute poison in any form that it is produced, whether crude or refined, and I think it is very proper that this word "crude" be eliminated on behalf of the manufacturers of that product.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. CRITCHFIELD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 1, page 1, line 3, by striking out all of section 1 which follows the word "That" in line 3 of said section.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

Sections two, three, four, five, six, seven and eight were read as follows:

Section 2 No person partnership association or corporation shall directly or indirectly act within this Commonwealth as public adjuster without procuring from the Insurance Commissioner a license as public adjuster

Section 3 The Insurance Commissioner shall issue adjusters' licenses to persons partnership associations or corporations applying therefor whom he seems to be trustworthy and competent to transact business as public adjusters in such manner as to safeguard the interests of the public

A license issued to a corporation partnership or association shall authorize only the officers and directors of the corporation or the members of the partnership or association specified in the license. The fee to be paid to the Insurance Commissioner by the applicant for such adjusters' license at the time the application is made and annually thereafter for the renewal thereof shall be one hundred dollars. If the applicant is a corporation partnership or association such fee shall be paid for each person specified in the license.

Section 4 Before any adjuster's license is issued by the Insurance Commissioner there shall be filed in the Insurance Department a written application therefor. Such application shall be on form or forms and supplements thereof prescribed by the commissioner and must set forth (a) The name and address of the applicant and if the applicant is a partnership or association the name and address of each member and if the applicant is a corporation the name and address of each of its officers and directors (b) whether any license as agent broker or adjuster has been issued heretofore by the commissioner to the applicant and if the applicant is an individual whether any such license has been heretofore issued to any partnership or association of which he was or is a member or to any corporation of which he was or is an officer or director and if the applicant is a partnership or association whether any such license has been issued heretofore to any member thereof and if the applicant is a corporation whether any such license has been issued heretofore to any officer or director of such corporation (c) the business in which the applicant has been engaged for the year next preceding the date of the applicant and if employed by another the name or names and addresses of such employer or employers (d) such other information as the commissioner may require to enable him to determine their trustworthiness and competency to transact the business of public adjusters in such manner as to safeguard the interests of the public.

An application for an adjuster's license must be signed and sworn to by the applicant if an individual and if by a partnership or association by each member thereof and if made by a corporation by each officer and director thereof who is authorized thereby to act as an adjuster.

Section 5 A corporation association or partnership to which a license has been issued may at any time make an application to the commissioner for the issuance of a supplemental license authorizing additional officers or directors of the corporation or additional members of the partnership or association to act as adjusters. The commissioner may thereupon issue to such corporation association or partnership a supplemental license accordingly upon the payment of an additional fee for each member officer or director thereby authorized to act as an adjuster.

Section 6 A license issued under this act shall be revoked by the commissioner if after due investigation he determines that the holder of such license (a) has violated any provisions of this act or (b) has made a material misstatement in the application for such license or (c) has been guilty of fraudulent practices or (d) has in the judgment of the Insurance Commissioner demonstrated his incompetency or untrustworthiness to transact the business of a public adjuster.

Section 7 If an application for license under this act is refused or if a license is revoked by the commissioner notice thereof shall forthwith be served on the applicant or on the holder of such license either personally or by mail. If by mail such service shall be complete if the notice is deposited in the post office postage prepaid directed to the applicant or the holder of such license as the case may be at the place of business specified in the application or license.

Within thirty days from the date of such notice the applicant or licensee may apply to the court of common pleas by petition and rule to show cause why the action of the commissioner should not be set aside and the license be issued or reinstated.

Section 8 Any person partnership association or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars is hereby repealed.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL.

Mr. ANDERSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker, bill 589 was one of the first bills that was introduced in the House this session. Now, there is no other object in re-committing this bill to the Law and Order Committee except to have the bill killed. They did the same thing last session when it was re-committed to the Committee on Law and Order. I can see no reason why anybody should object to this bill when you consider all the circumstances. People enjoy a good golf game on Sunday, they can go to a baseball game on Sunday, take trolley rides and excursions. Anybody is privileged to enjoy themselves and get close to nature except the man who works six days in the week and is only asking for this one day when he can go out with his family and enjoy a little fishing. I hope the members of this House will not agree to send this bill back to the Committee on Law and Order.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion.

The Speaker announced the "nays" appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for and seventy-six members having voted in the affirmative and eighty-seven in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1041, entitled:

An Act providing constables fees for service of writs in juvenile cases

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STRAYER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend Title, page 1, line 2, by inserting an apostrophe after the word "constables"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1000, as follows:

An Act making it unlawful for any district attorney assistant district attorney or other prosecutor to sit within the bar of the court or otherwise conduct himself so as to cause the jury to believe that he is a part of the court and providing for the removal of such officers from office on quo warranto by the attorney general in certain cases

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That it is unlawful for any district attorney or any assistant district attorney or any other public or private prosecutor in conducting the trial of any criminal case to sit within the bar of the court where he is conducting such trial or to conduct himself in any other manner which may lead the jury to believe that he is a part of the court hearing the case

Section 2 Any such person violating the provisions of section one of this act shall be held in contempt of court and shall suffer such penalty as the court may direct

Section 3 Any district attorney or assistant district attorney persisting in such violation shall be removed from office on quo warranto at the instance of the attorney general

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 182, entitled:

An Act to restrain certain sports and parades on Memorial Day

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally,

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Horne, permit himself to interrogated?

Mr. HORNE. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOWE. This bill eliminates sports entirely on Memorial Day, does it not?

Mr. HORN. Commercialized sports.

Mr. HOWE. In the last part of the bill, page 2, line 5, "This act shall not be construed to apply to engagements in any athletic competition for prizes other than money." That eliminates certain people, does it not?

Mr. HORN. Yes, sir.

Mr. HOWE. It does not seem to me right, members of the House, that this bill should be passed, because I do not think any one should be eliminated, or any one should be entitled to any special privileges. My interpretation of this bill is that certain people are granted privileges to conduct their sports on Memorial Day and other ones are not.

Mr. HORN. In answer to the gentleman interrogating, I will say that this only exempts those which are held on private property, not open to the public, under the provisions of this act. It is asking the people of this Commonwealth to give the morning of Memorial Day, only the morning, for the sacred purposes for which it is intended, for the veterans of the civil War and of all wars since that time. It is a bill which is approved by the legislative body and the state body of the American Legion, by the Grand Army of the Republic and its kindred societies, and we only ask for this morning, that they may not interfere with the program for the day dedicated to the veterans of the wars of this county.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton,

Mr. Horn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HORN. Yes, sir Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Are we to understand as the bill now stands you can play golf at private clubs on the morning of Memorial Day but you cannot play baseball?

Mr. Horn. Not for which an admission is charged, open to the public.

Mr. HEFFRAN. But you can play golf at a private club?

Mr. HORN. Yes, or you can go automobile riding if you wish.

Mr. HEFFRAN. I am in sympathy with what you desire to get at, but as the bill now stands I am opposed to it.

Mr. HORN. I realize that the present organizations are so strong that they have little time for patriotism or for recognition of the services of those who fought under the flag of our country. We feel that we are asking but very little for the morning of Memorial Day, because the majority, the major part of the sports are commercialized in the afternoon. We feel that the American public in due respect and honor for those who served the flag might give us half a day for what Congress intended the day to be.

Mr. HEFFRAN. I am in sympathy with the statement made by the sponsor of this bill, but why exclude anybody?

Mr. HORN. Because we cannot regulate the private acts of an individual, but if a circus parades the streets of the city, or if there is a show where money is taken for admission, or a baseball game whereat money is taken for admissions, we can regulate that. It does not prevent any association like the Y. M. C. A. from having sports on their own grounds if they are private. You cannot restrict the individual.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Then I am to understand that private club rooms or something of that kind is prohibited under the constitution? Why have that section in the act then?

Mr. HORN. Because if the act was made so broad, the objection would be so strong from individuals who claim that right of personal privilege of their own actions we cannot govern their individual actions, but where any monetary transaction is concerned we feel the State can regulate that and give us some relief on half a day of that kind in the interest at least of recognition of service to the country.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think every member of this House fully appreciates the service rendered by the veterans of our different wars. We appreciate fully the services performed by those in sixty-one and sixty-five to save this Union when it was threatened with dismemberment. We appreciate the service of the boys who have been across the seas and fought in this great world war. I think it is not the proper thing to cast aspersion upon the motives of any member of this House who deems it proper to vote against this bill. If you will examine this bill carefully it is very drastic indeed I know of a place in which the American Legion, for instances, conducts services on Memorial Day, and usually after the services at the cemetery the boys have arranged for a game of baseball, probably with the American Legion from another town, or probably with some other organization. This act says "that whoever before the hour of noon on Memorial Day promotes or arranges or conducts" I am not an attorney, but from the wording of this act I believe that any one, for instance, who would go over the town with dodgers or bills and distribut them to the town or to the citizens of the town advertising the fact that on the afternoon of Memorial Day a game would be played between two baseball teams would lay themselves open to prosecution under the act. And then further, if you will examine the bill the fine is very excessive indeed to make a man subject to a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars for an offense of this character. That is very high indeed. I do not believe that the men whom we want to honor, the boys of the late war and the few veterans of the Civil War who yet remain would be in favor of this act. I do not believe that they would attempt to cut out sports and recreation which are offered to many and women of this Commonwealth on Memorial Day, one of the few days possibly on which many of the boys working in the shops have the liberty to enjoy. I believe you can be just as loyal to your people, just as loyal to your country and to your State if you play baseball on Memorial Day as are those who do not play. I want to call your attention again to the wording of this act. It says "Whoever before the hour of noon on Memorial Day promotes or arranges or conducts," According to my meager knowledge of the law I think the caretaker who would go out and arrange the grounds on Memorial Day in order that the game might be played in the afternoon would lay himself open to prosecution under the wording of the act.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will call the roll.

Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. LAFFERTY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. LAFFERTY. My point of order is, that the gentleman is out of order, as a roll call has been ordered.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken, the roll had already been ordered. The Clerk will proceed with the calling of the roll.

Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

 On the question,
 Will the House agree to the bill on third reading.
 It was agreed to.
 On the question,
 Shall the bill pass finally?
 Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.
 The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton permit himself to be interrogated?
 Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker, Yes Sir.
 The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.
 Mr. STERLING. Does this bill tend to increase or decrease present costs imposed by magistrates and justices of the peace?
 Mr. HORN. Increase.
 Mr. STERLING. Will you explain to the House what items and in what amount the increases are made?
 Mr. HORN. I sponsored this bill for the State Magistrates Association. I am advised that it increases the fees approximately thirty-three and one-third per centum.
 Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the sponsor of the bill.
 The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton permit himself to be further interrogated?
 Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. STERLING. Who will benefit by the increases, the Commonwealth or the magistrates and justices of the peace?

Mr. HORN. The magistrates and justices of the peace.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, we went over this bill very carefully. The sponsor says it will make about a thirty-three per cent. increase. My recollection is that someone came before the Committee and complained the matter. The increase in some items was three cents, some five cents, and I think the biggest increase was fifteen cents—the particular items I am unable to point out. As far as Philadelphia is concerned, all of these increases go into the City Treasury. Now I understand other parts of the State are affected the same way. The increases seemed small to the committee and the committee recommended the bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HORN. Yes sir, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Montgomery will proceed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, on page 6 of the bill, line 3, is this item: "Justifying parties on bond for liquor licenses one dollar and fifty cents." Why is that item in the bill since all hotels have been put out of business?

Mr. HORN. I did not get your question.

Mr. ALEXANDER. On page 6 line 3, you have a charge, "Justifying parties on bond for liquor licenses one dollar and fifty cents." I understood from speeches we have heard recently that all the hotels have been put out of business. Why have a charge of that kind in the bill at this late day?

Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AUTHORIZING THE PRINTING OF ADDITIONAL COPIES OF HOUSE BILL No. 985.

Mr. BEHNEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House authorize the printing of 500 copies of House Bill No. 985, entitled:

An Act to amend section three hundred and one and three hundred and six and three hundred and seven as amended of an act approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and thirty-six) entitled, "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employee in the course of employment, establishing an elective schedule of compensation and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder."

as amended in the Committee on Insurance.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, having voted "no" on House Bill No. 182, entitled:

An Act to restrain certain sports and parades on Memorial Day

I should like to move that the vote by which the House defeated this bill be reconsidered, and as soon as that motion is seconded I should like to explain my reason for the motion.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion. On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House,

I happen to take credit for having voted the first "no" on the roll call on this bill when the Speaker, or acting Speaker, asked for the second calling of the roll. All of us, I think, judging by the vote, or most of us felt, and I still feel that this is an improper matter for legislation. We have, however, been recorded and there is no reason why we should spend any time in explaining why we voted that way. It seems to me, and I have spoken to the sponsor of the bill, that the purpose of the bill would best have been served, if, instead of legislating and making a misdemeanor, we had passed some kind of joint resolution setting out publicly the feeling of the Senate and the House that there should be more of a united observance of Memorial Day, more in the nature of patriotic observance, but not penalize the fellow who happened to be on parade or running a race because of sports at a picnic or something of that sort. With that in view I voted against the bill. I still feel exactly as I did in voting against the bill but think it a more courteous thing to the sponsor of the bill and to the Committee on Military Affairs, and the men who served, if we were to reconsider the vote and then move to recommit the bill to the Committee on Military Affairs with the understanding that when it reaches there the bill will not come out; and if they want to introduce a joint resolution along the lines I indicated I think it will have hearty accord and support in the House; and for that reason and not because we have not definitely put ourselves on record, because I think we have, I move the reconsideration of the vote by which that bill was defeated on final passage.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I voted "no" on this question. Had I voted "aye" it would have been just in hearty accord with the soldier boys who did their duty for this country; but, as the former speaker has stated to you, that this bill, more or less, has a taint of something that we do not desire I voted "no" for the purpose of recommitting it back to the committee, and in hearty accord with the sponsor of this bill, who stated that he would agree that the bill should go back to committee. Immediately upon a favorable vote on this pending motion another motion will be presented that the bill be recommitted to the Committee. I am in hearty accord with the suggestion of the former speaker that a resolution may be introduced for the purpose of showing our loyal spirit and hearty accord with the boys who served their country that on Memorial Day we should at least observe the morning services for the boys. Therefore I would ask that you vote unanimously for the reconsideration of this vote and then send the bill back to committee to show some consideration for the sponsor of the bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, as far as retracting or any excuse for my action on this bill, I have not any. I recognize what has been said along the line of patriotism. Patriotism does not mean the waving of flags and the making of speeches. Patriotism does not mean taking the time of this House in voting down bills and then reconsidering them. I have no apologies to make. I am sorry at all times to vote against a bill of any man in this House. I do not like to do it; and if this resolution is presented, recommending a more patriotic observance of Memorial Day I will holler "yes" to that just as hard as I hollered "no" on this bill we are now considering. But why do we have to revive this bill and then send it back into committee to die there when it is already dead now. Why not leave it lay where it is in a pleasant burial spot. Let us just leave it be where it is now and then bring up the resolution and let us all vote "aye" and pay our patriotism in that way, if that helps us any.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, as Chairman of the Military Committee I do not feel like taking the responsibility of sending that bill back there and using the committee as a burial plot. They voted "no" on the bill and I was on the floor but the speaker did not recognize me. I wished to make a motion to reconsider the bill and refer it back to committee, but a point of order was raised and I had to sit down. I do not feel this present moment that we should refer this bill back to committee.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the motion?
It was not agreed to.

Legislative Journal

Session 1925

126th of the General Assembly

Vol. 8.

HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 1925.

No. 25.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, March 18, 1925.

The Senate met at 10:30 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. John G. Homsher) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Edward S. Ninde, offered the following prayer:

O Lord: On the morning of this new day of life, we ask Thy Fatherly goodness to be granted unto us. We need Thee, as children need an earthly parent. Thou hast made us. Every good and perfect gift is from Thy bountiful hand. Through all the years Thou hast cared for us, and if Thy protecting providence were to be withdrawn, we would perish. Watch over us during this day. Bless the Senators as they take up the important duties that lie before them, and day by day may they receive divine wisdom and strength. We ask it in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 472, (House Bill No. 378), as follows:

An Act to amend sections three five and nine of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and twenty-four) entitled "An act preventing the manufacture sale or transportation within the Commonwealth of adulterated or misbranded Paris greens lead arsenates lime sulphur compounds and other insecticides and fungicides and regulating traffic therein providing for inspection of such materials and imposing penalties" making it unnecessary for the Secretary of Agriculture to hear persons whose samples of insecticides and fungicides have been found to be adulterated or misbranded requiring persons manufacturing or importing insecticides or fungicides into this State to register the same with the Secretary of Agriculture making it unlawful to sell any insecticide or fungicide not registered and fixing a minimum fine for the violation of this act

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section three of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and twenty-four) entitled "An act preventing the manufacture sale or transportation within the Commonwealth of adulterated or misbranded Paris greens lead arsenates lime sulphur compounds and other insecticides and fungicides and regulating traffic therein providing for inspection of such materials and imposing penalties" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 3 That the Secretary of Agriculture shall promulgate uniform rules and regulations for enforcing this act including the collection and examination by existing bureaus of insecticides and fungicides manufactured or offered for sale in the Commonwealth for the purpose of determining whether such articles are adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act [and if it shall appear after such examination that any of such specimens are adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act the Secretary of Agriculture shall cause notice thereof to be given to the person from whom such sample was obtained Any person so notified shall be given an opportunity to be heard at a designated time and place and if it appears that any of the provisions of this act have been violated the Secretary of Agriculture shall cause the certification of such facts to the proper court with a copy of the results of the analysis or examination authenticated by the analyst or expert under oath Results of analysis or examinations of insecticides and fungicides may be published under the direction of the Secretary of Agriculture]

Section 2 That said act is hereby amended by adding thereto section 5 (a) which reads as follows

Section 5 (a) Every person manufacturing insecticides or fungicides in this Commonwealth and every person importing insecticides or fungicides into this State for the purpose of reselling the same on or before the first day of January of each year or before selling offering or exposing for sale such insecticides or fungicides shall register and file with the Secretary of Agriculture a certified statement of the names and number of each kind or brand of such insecticides or fungicides that he or they shall manufacture import or offer for sale during the next ensuing year and such additional information concerning the same as the Secretary of Agriculture may require and he or they shall pay to the Secretary of Agriculture the sum of five dollars ($5.00) for each kind or brand of such insecticide or fungicide so registered All moneys so received shall be immediately paid by the Secretary of Agriculture into the general fund of the State Treasury

The Secretary of Agriculture may refuse to register any kind or brand of insecticide or fungicide and he may revoke any registration which shall have been accepted when such kind or brand has been found to be adulterated misbranded or to have little or no value for the purpose for which it is intended to be used

It shall be unlawful for any person to sell offer or expose for sale any insecticide or fungicide that is not properly registered under the provisions of this section

Section 3 That section nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 9 Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act or any rule or regulation of the Secretary of Agriculture promulgated under this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be fined not [to exceed] less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars for the first offense and upon conviction for each subsequent offense be fined not to exceed three hundred dollars or sentenced to imprisonment for not to exceed one year or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court

BILL OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 900 is an amendment to the Primary Laws relating to political parties, and regulating the nomination of candidates and providing for the filing of a record of the funds of the party nominees. There seems to be some confusion among the Senators about it, and I ask unanimous consent, therefore, that Senate Bill No. 900, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section six as amended and section eight of the act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and nineteen) entitled "An act regulating certain political parties providing for and regulating the nomination of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices the election of delegates and alternate delegates to National party conventions and of certain party officers including State committeemen a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the office of President of the United States and the payment by the several counties and their reimbursement by the State of the expenses of the same authorizing the State committee of a political party to make and to alter amend and revoke rules and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein and repealing inconsistent legislation" go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER RECOMMITTAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 294.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 294, entitled:

An Act to further amend section twenty-one of the act approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and twenty) entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An Act to provide revenue by taxation,' approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine" by removing the exemption of a part of the capital stock of building and loan associations was recommitted to the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this bill relates to the raising of revenue. I am not very much concerned about this bill as I am about the manner in which it was recommitted. I understood, when I came to the Senate, that there was an unwritten law here, which was more potent than Rule 38 or any other rule, that no Senator would recommit a bill without graciously notifying the Senator by whom it was introduced. This unwritten law has been violated by the Senator who recommitted this bill when I was engaged in conversation with Senator Miller. Therefore, for two reasons I would like the motion to be reconsidered,—for the reason I have stated, and because the bill belongs to the Committee on Finance. It is a bill for the raising of revenue, and must not be buried in Senator Leslie's committee, from which it may never come out.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I desire to state that I informed the Senator who recommitted this bill that he should notify Senator Woodward before doing so. He spoke to me about it and I told him it was a courtesy due Senator Woodward that before this bill was recommitted he should be notified to that effect. He said Senator Woodward was not in his seat and I pointed Senator Woodward out to him on the floor of the Senate.

Mr. CULBERTSON. Mr. President, I challenge the statement of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman. After the bill had been recommitted he spoke to me about that, and then I went over and spoke to Senator Woodward about it, and Senator Woodward at that time made no objection. It is a fact that it was done hurriedly, but this is a bill that should be considered by the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations; it is to tax building and loan associations; and, therefore, when it is sent back to the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations it is in its proper place for consideration and I object to the motion.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, inasmuch as the Senator from Mifflin, Mr. Culbertson, has challenged my statement, I desire to state that all I know about it is what he told me. He came to me and said he was going to recommit this bill. I told him that he should speak to Senator Woodward about it before doing so. If he had already done it when he spoke to me, of course I have no knowledge of it. Those were his statements to me.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, it is a noted fact that in assigning bills as presented by the Senators there have been errors made, and oftentimes there have been requests made by Senators to have their bills placed in committees.

While the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, who is the author and sponsor of this bill, claims it is a bill having to do with the raising of revenue, it is also true that this money will be raised by taxing building and loan associations and corporations.

Therefore, I believe the bill naturally belongs to, and should be in, the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations. Insofar as my position as chairman of that committee is concerned, I want the Senator to distinctly understand, as I believe every member of my committee knows, that I solicit no such bills in my committee. I spoke to Senator Woodward about this bill this morning, and it will not be locked up or pickled and I will guarantee proper treatment.

Therefore, I trust the members of this Senate will allow this bill to rest in this committee until the committee meets, which will be on next Tuesday, when we will give the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, every opportunity in that meeting to be heard with reference to it.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I feel quite reassured that the bill is in very safe hands, and that everything will be done in its favor; and I, therefore, withdraw my motion.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, who seconded this motion, withdraw his second?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is withdrawn.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. JOYCE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The House met at 10:30 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we ask Thee this day that Thou wouldst give to all of us a realization that we are Thy children. That regardless of race, creed or color we are all the children of our Father in Heaven. Therefore we pray today that Thou wouldst keep us all this day from any personal bitterness or strife. Let us have the courage of our convictions so that we may be at peace within our own souls; that we may go forth with malice toward none and with charity for all, seeking to do the thing which is truly wise and truly just which will not only keep us at peace within our own souls but at peace with Thee. We ask it in Thy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of the proceedings of Tuesday, March 17, 1925.

Section 13 The Board shall have the power to make and promulgate appropriate rules and regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of this act. Provided That as far as practicable the rules and regulations of the Board shall conform to the rules and regulations promulgated by the appropriate agency of the government of the United States for carrying into effect the provisions of any act or acts of Congress regulating the manufacture development storage sale or transportation of any alcohol or alcoholic liquid.

Section 14 Any place within this Commonwealth in which any alcohol or any alcoholic liquid is manufactured developed stored for hire or sold at wholesale by a person without a permit as required by the provisions of this act and any place in which a person holding a permit issued under the provisions of this act shall violate any provision of this act or any rule or regulation of the Board or any provisions of the act to which this is a supplement is hereby declared to be a common nuisance and upon such violation the permit if any held by such person shall be automatically suspended. Any nuisance as in this section defined may be abated in the same manner in which nuisances may be abated under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement.

Section 15 Any person who shall violate any of the conditions of any permit or who shall falsify any record or report required by this act to be kept or who shall violate any rule or regulation of the Board or who shall interfere with hinder or obstruct any inspection authorized by this act or prevent any member of the Board or any person duly authorized and designated by the Board from entering any place which such member of the Board or such person is authorized by this act to enter for the purpose of making an inspection or who shall violate any other provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) or more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or undergo imprisonment of not more than three (3) years or both at the discretion of the Court.

Section 16 No property rights shall exist in any alcohol or any alcoholic liquid manufactured developed used in the process of manufacture stored for hire sold at wholesale or transported for hire in violation of any of the provisions of this Act and the same shall be deemed contraband and forthwith destroyed. No such alcohol or alcoholic liquid in the custody of any officer of the law shall be seized or taken from him on any writ of replevin or other like process.

Section 17 It shall be unnecessary in any complaint information indictment or other pleadings to negative any provision or exception contained in this act.

Section 18 No person shall be excused on the ground that it may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture from attending and testifying or producing books papers documents and other evidence in obedience to a subpoena of any court in any suit or proceeding based upon or growing out of any alleged violation of this act but no natural person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction matter or thing as to which in obedience to a subpoena and under oath he may so testify or produce evidence but no person shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

Section 19 If any section or provision of this Act shall be held by any court to be unconstitutional such judgment shall not affect any other section or provision of the same.

It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this Act would have passed had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I feel it is entirely unnecessary for me to attempt to explain this bill. In the first place, the legal phraseology of it is, in many respects, beyond me; I am not an attorney, but I do say that it is a real moral issue. My conscience tells me it is right thing to do; therefore, I sponsored the bill and am going to and have done all I can to pass it. That is the way I feel about it in my own heart, but as there are certain misstatements and misunderstandings that should be cleared up, I am going to address you just briefly as to what the bill is.

We are all Americans. We believe in government, in liberty and in law. Ours is a government of laws and not of men. Only as we obey the law, respect it and enforce it, can we have peace, security and protection. No intelligent American citizen can deny that today we are in an era of lawlessness such as this country has never seen, and which, if unchecked, will lead to anarchy and destruction.

Every member of this House has taken an oath to support and defend the Constitution of Pennsylvania and of the United States. The Eighteenth Amendment is now the supreme law of this nation and it must be respected, obeyed, and enforced just as much as any other section of the Constitution.

The enforcement of this Amendment is a test of the ability of this nation to make effective. If this law can be defied, it opens the gate to the disregard of all law.

If this country does not make a success of the Eighteenth Amendment, it will be the result of the surrender of decent living Americans to "bootleggers", "booze-makers", and their kind.

The underlying purpose of this bill is to effectively check at its source the illegal release of alcohol and beer.

A few weeks ago James E. Jones, Assistant to Federal Prohibition Commissioner Haynes, stated that the failure of the Federal Government to adequately stop the diversion of denatured alcohol was due to a "loophole in the law". This law purposes to close that very "loophole" and stop, once for all, the flood of alcohol which has swept over this country killing hundreds of people and leaving in its wake scores blinded and crippled for life.

This bill was drawn by practical men who have been on the firing line of law enforcement for years. Knowing its problems, they devised a bill that would work. Many legitimate dealers, fearing that their business would be injured, complained. A public hearing was accorded them and the fullest freedom given them to present their claims. The farmer, the doctor, the druggist, the wholesale grocer, are exempt from its provisions. The control is centralized in a responsible board of executive officers of this Commonwealth. Men of trained ability and highest character will administer this law. Responsibility for failure to enforce this law can be fixed at once. There can be no evasion or shifting of duty.

Who fears this law? The honest, law-abiding citizen and manufacturer? No! The producer who is allowing his output to be diverted to illegal uses; the permittee who is using a "cover-up house" to cloak his dishonesty and his traffic in "bootleg liquor"; and the brewer who, under cover of darkness, seeks to evade the law by shipping in the inky darkness of night his illegal and dishonest product.

In a few minutes we will vote on this Bill and register for all time our convictions and our acts. Today we meet as representatives of the people of this Great Commonwealth. They have chosen us and they expect of us our best of sound common sense, moral judgment and spiritual vision. Here and now we must submerge our personal view, our habits—yes, even our identities, and labor for the common good.

The whole scope and object of this Bill is for the public good, the public morals, the preservation of health and the welfare of our people, and for the safety and good order of society. On which side will you stand? On the side of law enforcement, or with the bootlegger?

Choose ye this day whom ye will serve!

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. The issue before us to-day is not one as to whether we are wet or dry. As an issue, that ceased to be in January, 1919, so far as the respective States are concerned, when after practically every State in the Union had made a ratification and Congress finally adopted the Prohibition or Eighteenth Amendment, and gave to the several States the concurrent power to enforce the same. Congress not only gave this power but expected that it would be used to the fullest extent. The question, therefore, is whether we shall stand on the side of law or one the side of the law-breaker; whether we shall support, maintain and respect the Constitution of the United States, or whether we shall be a party to an evasion which would strike at the very foundation of government. A man who would deliberately and after mature thought adopt the latter course, we might well expect would refuse to stand and uncover his head when the "Star Spangled Banner" was played. This bill and no other bill will not make Pennsylvania completely dry. We will always have violations just as we will have those who will commit murder and robbery until the day of the millenium. But we cannot wink at one violation of the law without offering support and encouragement to others. As I have said, this bill will not make Pennsylvania completely dry. We believe it will go a tremendous way toward that happy project. If it did make Pennsylvania completely dry my good old friend, Homer Tope, sitting there on the sidelines, would be without a job and we would have to get him a clerkship with a chair sufficiently big and sufficiently strong to hold his immense bulk, because, after all, no Legislature would be the same without Homer with us. But this bill goes beyond the principle of stopping the illicit supply of alcohol right at the source. We have heard shrieks of protests just like rats will squeal when their nests are burned. Then to attempt to stop this tremendous flood of liquor at the source would seem to me to be as silly as this: we will illustrate by saying that the breast of a reservoir has broken and cracks and fissures have appeared there from which water is pouring and slopping all over the flower beds, shrubbery and rustic spots which make for the beauty of the immediate surrounding. Would you attempt to prevent that muddy mass by taking buckets and tubs to catch this water, and throw it away; or would you instead cement the cracks and stop the damage at once. There is nothing in this bill which restricts the rights of any law-abiding citizen, nothing which invades the sanctity of the home. With those of you who have stocked your cellars with pre-war stuff, we have no quarrel whatsoever; you are strictly within the law, and you may use it to entertain your friends as you see fit, and it is nobody's business in the world, or has the State, the nation or the law. This bill imposes no burdensome restriction on the manufacture or use of fruit juices in the home. We aim to destroy the bootlegger who, in turn, would poison and destroy the youth of our land, and glory in having them show a contempt for the law. In seeking your support on this bill, I would ask you to put away all thought of any political significance which the bill has in it. It is not the Governor's bill, it is not Plym Snyder's bill, it is not Charlie Armstrong's bill; it is a bill drawn in the interest of that which we believe to be right and to safeguard the Constitution of the United States. You may disregard every speech made on the floor of this Home. You may forget every argument which has followed this bill in all of its tumultuous history from the time of its introduction, and you will still be told absolutely what to do. Deep down in the heart of every man is that which is called "conscience." It is a telephone of the soul, and there never has a question arisen between what is right and what is wrong but what the little bell tinkled in our being, and if we would listen right, listen in, we would always be taught the right. We were told that when as a little boy we knelt at a mother's knee. With many of us it is autumn and winter is not far away. That little bell is tingling now ever so softly; Will you listen in and so act that the love like of a mother, perhaps long gone, will come smiling through.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, the bill under consideration is intended to bring about a stricter enforcement in Pennsylvania of the eighteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution a condition so much to be desired by a large majority of the people of our State.

A deplorable condition exists in our State from the illegal sale of intoxicating liquor, a condition fully recognized by the members of this House and from our association for longer or shorter periods I have reason to believe that it is the desire of every member to see this blot on the fair name of Pennsylvania removed.

The Republican Party is in such absolute control of this House and will be held responsible for the result of the vote on this measure. If it passes the party will be given due credit and if defeated it will likewise be held responsible for the result.

Under the liquor license system that prevailed in Pennsylvania for many years it was repeatedly charged and many believed the charge to be well founded that there was a working agreement between the liquor interests and the Republican Party and the defeat of the measure under consideration will cause the moral forces in Pennsylvania to feel that the Republican Party is again in partnership with and is protecting those who are constantly and deliberately violating the prohibition law of our fair State and with this impression among our people I would not dare to predict the result of the election in 1926.

It is now a time for the leaders of the Republican Party in Pennsylvania to stop look and listen before it may be too late to do so.

Very much to the credit of the Senate this bill passed that body. Pass it at this time in the House and in so doing save the Republican Party from the criticism it will otherwise be subject to and insure the election of the Republican ticket in 1926.

Mr. EDMONDS. A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker. On the calendar it is stated we are voting on file folio 2061, as a matter of fact are we not voting on file folio 2257, which contains the amendment adopted on this bill and which has been distributed to the members of the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is correct, that is the correct file folio. The Chair was not so informed before.

Mr. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, many of you who follow political history will remember a situation that occurred during the second term of President Cleveland, where he had, as President Coolidge had recently, a Congress on his hands. In his comment on a situation which arose, President Cleveland remarked that "a condition, not a theory confronts us." It seems to me that phrase very aptly expresses a situation which confronts us today. We are confronted by a condition and not by a theory. The days of theorizing regarding prohibition have passed. Prohibition is now a part of the fundamental law of this land. A Republican Congress enacted the Enabling Resolution; it not only did that, but it passed it over the veto of a Democratic president.

A Supreme Court, the majority of whose members are of the Republican party have sustained that law against a great many attacks, and one of the most striking decisions was handed down just recently, which was written by Chief Justice Taft, a former president of this Republic. The amendment to the Federal Constitution was ratified by the State of Pennsylvania by a Republican legislature under the leadership of a Republican governor. An enabling act was passed at a recent session of the Legislature under the leadership of a Republican Governor, and by a Republican legislature. I cannot, as I look back over the record of the Republican party, find anything in it but that this Republican party is a dry party. I have additional authority for that in the simple and yet very direct and very forceful plank that was adopted at the recent National Convention of our party at Cleveland. I want to read you those two or three striking sentences:

"We must have respect for law. We must have observance of law. We must have enforcement of law. The very existence of the government depends upon this. The substitution of private will for public law is only another name for oppression, disorder, anarchy and the mob rule."

"Every government depends upon the loyalty and respect of its citizens. Violators of the law weaken and threaten government itself. No honest government can condone such actions on the part of its citizens. The Republican party pledges the full strength of the government for the maintenance of these principles by the enforcement of the constitution and of all laws."

Now, I speak to you this morning as a lifelong Republican, a dry Republican, if you please; but I have never been a prohibitionist, a party prohibitionist; I have always been a Republican and a regular Republican at that. We hear a great deal down here about party loyalty. Well now, there is a great difference between party loyalty as a mere lip-servant and party loyalty as a sincere conviction on the part of those who express that loyalty; and so my appeal to you this morning is from one Republican to fellow Republicans to stand by the high standard which our National and our State party has set in the enactment of moral welfare. This bill which is before us at this time is a bill which it seems to me appeals to the common sense of the common people. It seems to me that it is a sound and a practical bill, and that it is entirely within the rights or within the limits of a reasonable respect for the individual rights of those whom it touches.

And then there is just one other phase of this: I want to say this to you: That the Dry Bill is backed by the overwhelming sentiment of the best thinking people of the State of Pennsylvania. It has been subjected, as you have been told, to liberal amendment. Opportunity was given for a public hearing. It has been before the people of the State now for six weeks. Its faults ought to have been found and ought to have been pointed out.

And there is just one other thing I wish to say, just emphasize what the gentleman from Tioga has so well said: That the defeat of this bill might be construed as a rebuke to the Governor; but it is not the Governor's bill; it is the United Dry Bill; it is the Republican party bill, if you please; and while there might be a rebuke, I think the reaction from that rebuke would be a reaction that would be disastrous to our party in the election three years hence. That is my prediction, and that is my fear. Now, that is one argument for the passage of this bill, but the greater argument, the more convincing argument is that it is right to do right.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, inconsistency thy name is the radical dry. My dear friend from Chester, Mr. Long, says this bill has no political significance. On top of that my dear friend from Tioga says, in his political wisdom that if this bill is beaten he would not like to predict the disaster that would overtake the Republican Party.

Now, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think in my judgment that the Republican Party in the State of Pennsylvania and this great United State of ours is greater than any dry bill that was ever written on the statute books of any state.

If I was a bally-hoo man at a circus I would say, "step up ladies and gentlemen and see the greatest monstrosity in the world, Pinchot's great enforcement, a bill that strikes at the very foundations of some of our greatest industrial establishments. A bill that is supposed to stop the boot-leggers, which will only result in the annoying of legitimate industries in their manufacturing activities. This bill instead of accomplishing what the framers hope will become a menace and a political foot ball for satisfying the demands of administration partisans. Section Four of this bill creates a permit board with czar like powers, for its duties, making as they do their own rules and regulations, and anyone using industrial alcohol can be summarily deprived of their privileges. This bill is capable of striking a mortal blow at the most important industries of Pennsylvania, and should not pass. It also gives the Governor the right to appoint an endless chain of employees from the permit board down, through the enforcement machinery, and the taxpayer of Penna. will pay for this directly to the State and indirectly to industry for the increased cost of industrial operation. This bill will not do anything that is not already capable of being done, as users of alcohol are issued permits by the Federal Government. The permittees are named the users to which the industrial alcohol may be put, and the manufacturing plants and operation are always open to State and Federal inspection. It has been claimed by the friends of this bill that it has no search and seizure clause. Now I am frank to say that it has not in so many words, but it has an inspection clause whereby an inspection can be made at any hour of the day or night, and I would like to know the difference between an inspection and a search. Just the difference in a word, which means the same thing. This can be done without the trouble of securing a warrant for the inspection. Upon these and many other reasons I wish to say, Mr. Speaker, and Members of the House, this bill should be voted down, as it will not satisfy anyone, and I also know, as I predicted in my speech two years ago, the so-called friends of Prohibition will be back here two years hence looking for more enforcement, and I appeal once more to you men and women of this legislature to be true to your constituents and vote this bill down.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, one upon a time there was a school teacher who was having a great deal of difficulty with some of the pupils in her room. Out of the fifty pupils in her room two of them insisted upon annoying the teacher by eating candy during the school hours. The teacher, of course, forbade the eating of candy, but two of them continued to violate the orders of the teacher. She then visited all of the candy stores in the vicinity of her school room and directed them to sell no candy to the pupils in her room, but lo and behold even though those storekeepers followed the orders of the teacher and sold no candy to those pupils, the next day when she met the students in classes she found that there were still two eating candy. She was beside herself for a moment, she thought for a while and finally she gave this order to the pupils, to the fifty pupils: Every morning when you come to school I want you to line up before you enter this room and I want to search everyone of you to see if you are bringing any candy into this schoolroom. She didn't do what most intelligent teachers would do, try to follow the two who were violating the orders and try to find where they were securing this candy, rather she put a restriction upon her entire school of fifty pupils, forty-eight of whom were entirely innocent.

It seems to me ladies and gentlemen of this House of Representatives, that we have an analogy upon this measure upon which we are speaking and voting this day. I agree with the speakers who have preceded me in the fact that this is not a wet and dry issue, and I am sincerely glad that those members have allowed their consciences to bring the matter up here before the people of Pennsylvania, that this is not a wet or dry issue. It is a matter of enforcement. Two years ago I voted for the enforcement bill and was promised by the sponsors of that bill that we would have no saloons, that it would be effective and the Governor in his speech to the Legislature stated that this bill would cure the defects. You know as well as I do that that bill has not done what it was promised to do. And why? I do not forget that in some sections of this State there are judges at this moment refusing to sentence properly liquor violators who are brought before them. I do not forget that in certain counties there are district attorneys who absolutely refuse to live up to the oath which they swore to when they took their office. I do not forget that recently in the newspapers it was reported that in two certain counties of this Commonwealth of ours grand juries, mind, you grand juries, refused to find true bills in the majority of liquor cases brought before them. I do not forget that federal prohibition agents and state policemen have even gone so far as to come into our courts and plead guilty to the charge of extorting bribes from violators of this act. Now, in view of the fact, ladies and gentlemen, that it is the enforcement, and not the fact that we do not have enough laws, can we honestly, taking the words of our friend from Chester, Mr. Long, can we honestly, if we know that conscience of ours, vote for more legislation which will give more opportunity to men of this kind to accept bribes and violate the laws which are on our statute books.

I make an issue of this for this reason, that I think the gentlemen who have preceded me have emphasized the fact that this is not a wet and dry issue, that those of us who vote in favor of this bill will do down in the newspapers as being dry and those who vote against it will go down in the newspapers as being wet, and yet back of our vote to a great extent is the fact that our conscience says it is not more law we need, it is more enforcement. When the measure is introduced in this House to make the punishment greater for those who prey upon violators of this law by extorting money in addition to those salaries which they receive, be the penalty as high as it may, I promise you to go on record in voting in favor of that measure.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, to start with, I will tell you that I am opposed to this "United Spy Bill." I was amused at my brother from Chester who stated that the bill had no father. They seem to have absolved themselves from all liability for the introduction of this Act. They say that it is not the Governor's Act, it is not Charley Armstrong's Act, it is not Senator Snyder's Act; the poor orphan has no father or mother. I wonder if the bootleggers had anything to do with it! The Governor came into the House yesterday, and in his polite way, oh, how pathetic, how pathetic, did he describe the conditions all over the State. I looked about at my good friends around here and I could see tears trickling down their cheeks and, as Agrippa said to Paul, as set forth in the 26th Chapter of Acts, Verse 28, "And Agrippa said unto Paul, 'With but little persuasion Thou wouldst make me a Christian.'" I went back to my room, oh, so sad at heart. I sang the song to myself, "Where is my boy tonight."

But to get down to the meat of the question: This is what you call vicious legislation. When you strike at the heart of the business interests of the State, you strike at the very meat and at the very heart of the people of Pennsylvania. Do you mean to say in face of the telegrams and letters which you have received from reliable concerns in Pennsylvania against whom at no time could you raise the finger of scorn, these men who were in business, that you will put them in the category of criminals. I will give you an illustration, just in my own town, of Gilmore & Company, Kelley & Company, druggists, and will you put them within the category of criminals and say, "We are going to watch you every minute," when for years they have operated and have done business upon a legitimate basis? You mean we shall strike at the heart of such business and pass laws to bring them into the category of criminals?

You speak of party loyalty, name the Republican party—and, thank God, I am an American citizen, born in one of the greatest cities of the world, the workshop of the world, —Pittsburgh—and as an American I have a right to stand upon the floor of any Legislative body and criticize any law and, if necessary, criticize the Constitution when it violates the holy and American principle for which we stand; and, as I said in 1917, I fear no man, whether he be President of the United States or the Governor of Pennsylvania; I have fear for but one, and that is the God above me. That is where my fear rests and I know that my conscience will guide me rightly in this matter.

Do you appreciate that this Act brings under its provisions all the research laboratories, colleges and universities that are using alcohol for experimental purposes? Do you know that every restaurant man, who is allowed under the Volstead Act to use wines and brandies for cooking purposes, must come in and ask for a permit. Do you mean that a great institution which we have in Pittsburgh, that has brought out wonderful success in research work, must come down here and ask for a permit before they can go into this research work? Stifle science, stifle research work? What have you accomplished? Nothing. You attempt to accomplish something, but alas, it is for naught. This Act provides for a board who have absolute control of the entire situation. Under the Act of 1923 it was placed in the hands of our good friend, Lew Grimm, from Beaver county, of the Department of Justice. Now you come along and you shift over to the farmers, to the Agricultural Department. How do you reconcile that? Where does it belong? Over it goes to the Agricultural Department to take care of the enforcement of this particular law. You see nothing in the Act about the board if they should grow crooked; you provide no penalty under the Act. Suppose one of the board goes wrong, accepting a bribe from any of your constituents, there is nothing said in there about whether or not he goes to jail; but, my God, when a poor little fellow tries to make an honest living and overlooks something, you will send him to jail, you will lock up his place; you will make him keep open twenty-four hours in a day to let these spies come in and investigate and see whether or not he has obeyed the law. Is that fair to your constituents? Is it fair to yourself? Is it fair to your own conscience?

You go father: The Act provides that when you are aggrieved if these so-called agents of the Agricultural Department come down there and close up your business, they very graciously say, "Yes, you can appeal, you can come down to the Dauphin County Courts and you can ask the courts down here to help you out, to give you some relief if the Department has done wrong." The idea of bringing men from all parts of the State down to the Dauphin County courts to take their appeal! And then they will proceed thereon. It does not give you the right to continue your business. Suppose you put up a bond, as is required in all proceedings, it denies the right of supersedeas. Your place is closed up, you lose your money, and possibly a man's life's savings are involved. His place is locked up until the courts decide the matter. It is against American jurisprudence to ever set aside the right of supersedeas. When a man is convicted of murder in the first degree, he is allowed the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. The sheriff does not take him over and electrocute him, and then let the Supreme Court decide whether the case was tried properly or not. Let the man continue his business; give him that inherent American right which has been handed down to us by our good English fathers. That right is still the right of all Pennsylvanians in all proceedings except in this one instance.

Now, in conclusion, I will say that this is not going to curb the bootlegger. Where is it going to curb the flow of liquor into Pennsylvania? My heavens, with our State bounded by a part of the ocean, New Jersey, New York, Ohio and West Virginia, we will go over into them to stop them from bringing the stuff in here! It is not going to stop the bootlegger. Now, it is not intended to stop the bootlegger. It is intended to enhance the political value of someone well known to us all, and if you want real prohibition, let me tell you how to get it: Pray to your God to take the alcohol out of fruits and vegetables and then you will have absolute prohibition, and until such time, you will never have it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The roll was verified as follows:

REASONS FOR VOTE.

Mr. GOEHRING. Mr. Speaker, in casting my vote on Senate Bill No. 300, House Bill No. 728, File Folio 2257, I want to state most emphatically that the Eighteenth Amendment being the law of the land, should be observed by all law abiding citizens.

I believe, however, that the existing laws for the enforcement of prohibition and the violations thereof are entirely adequate provided an honest effort is made by officials charged with the enforcement thereof.

I believe, as a lawyer, that no search and seizure without a warrant should be allowed and the legal brief presented and filed by Representative Spangler as set forth in the Legislative Journal March 26th, A. D. 1923 on pages 798, 799 and 800, contains the solid and sound law sustaining this position. This Bill is directly contrary to the statements of law contained in said brief. In voting "No" upon this Bill I desire to file the following reasons:

(a) The permit granted to the State in this Bill will conflict with the Federal permit which is now granted. We must have one but not both.

(b) I sincerely believe that the Department of Agriculture should not be used as a police power as it was never created with this intent.

(c) This additional legislation must and will impose distinct hardship upon the legitimate manufacturers and consumers of alcohol and the existing laws properly enforced are sufficient to obtain the desired results.

(d) The definition of alcoholic liquid given on Page 2, section 2, lines 13 to 16 inclusive especially "DEVELOPS DURING" is entirely too broad, severe and unjust.

(e) Under section 9 the petitions of aggrieved must be filed in the County of Dauphin, thereby removing all legal procedure upon the Bill from our local courts to the Courts of Dauphin County,—a very expensive, unnecessary and unjust procedure. This section also forbids the Court at its discretion to allow an appellee to conduct business pending an appeal.

(f) The Act of 1923 prohibited the licensing of sales of alcoholic beverages by our County Courts. This Act transfers the said licensing to the Department of Agriculture at Harrisburg. This I believe is totally wrong.

(g) The closing of all business on Sundays I have at all times most heartily approved but in line 12 of section 12, Page 12 this Act appears not only the closing of business on Sundays but on "LEGAL HOLIDAYS."

(h) Section 16, Page 14, Lines 8, 9, 10 and 11 wholly deprives our Courts from considering "ANY WRIT OF REPLEVIN OR OTHER LIKE PROCESS" which reads as follows, "NO SUCH ALCOHOL OR ALCOHOLIC LIQUID IN THE CUSTODY OF ANY OFFICER OF THE LAW SHALL BE SEIZED OR TAKEN FROM HIM ON ANY WRIT OF REPLEVIN OR OTHER LIKE PROCESS." This is not only unjust, but contrary to the rights of the aggrieved.

REASONS FOR VOTING PRESENT.

Mrs. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, in the 1923 session members of the legislature were earnestly assured that passage of the Snyder enforcement act would stop the illegal traffic in liquor in Pennsylvania. I voted for that bill in the hope and belief that it would put an end to boot-legging.

Members of the legislature are now told by the sponsors of the Snyder act that boot-legging has actually increased and that still another law is needed to end it. If there was nothing else in the situation I would hesitate to support a measure which is a regulatory experiment and which in my judgment can have no bearing on the wet and dry issue. There is plenty of law now to deal effectively with the situation and resorts to new laws is only an admission that we are not enforcing the laws we have. What we need is more enforcement and not more laws.

There is, however, an aspect of the situation which I must take into consideration. The Governor has seen fit to make the so-called United Dry bill the vehicle for attacks upon Philadelphia which I resent. He has also tried to involve a member of the Coolidge cabinet in the situation and this move recalls attacks made upon the same official during the presidential primary campaign and smacks of politics. I cannot indorse the governor's activities in these respects by voting for a measure which is only regulatory and which may or may not do the work.

On the other hand, in view of my opposition to the illegal liquor traffic I do not wish my name to appear in the legislative record as against a measure which is at least nominally held to be dry. I therefore vote "present" and file these as my reasons.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER.

The SPEAKER. The next order of business is resolutions. Are there any resolutions to be presented to the House? There being none, the House will take up its regular order of business.

MOTION TO RE-CONSIDER VOTE.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 300, file folio, 2257, entitled:

A Supplement to the Act approved the twenty-seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws thirty-four) entitled "An act concerning alcoholic liquors prohibiting the manufacture advertising furnishing traffic in and possession of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes and articles and substances designed or intended for use in the manufacture thereof defining intoxicating liquor providing for penalties forfeitures and the abatement of nuisances and repealing existing alcoholic liquor license laws" regulating under permit through an Alcohol Permit Board created in the Department of Agriculture the manufacture development use in manufacture sale at wholesale storage by bailees for hire and transportation for hire of any alcohol or any alcoholic liquid by certain persons providing for fees and the disposition thereof authorizing the inspection of the records of permittees and purchasers of said liquids declaring certain places nuisances and providing for their abatement and providing penalties was defeated on final passage be reconsidered.

Mr. STADLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion. On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I am heartily in accord with the object of the gentleman from Philadelphia, but if there should be a vote, I would ask that there be a roll call and I make that as a motion.

Mr. HARDING. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion to reconsider the vote by which this bill was defeated?

Mr. STADLANDER. Mr. Speaker, just to explain this situation, as there seems to be a doubt in the minds of the members of the House as to how to vote upon this motion, the proposition is this: Let us vote on this bill and clean our calendar and get down to work. Let us get this bill out of the way so that it will cause no more waste of time. I ask the members to vote "no" on this motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were as follows:

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 444, entitled:

An Act regulating the selection and qualifications of jurors for service in the several courts civil and criminal of "counties of the second class creating a Board consisting of certain Judges of the Courts of Record of said counties and one other person elected thereto for this purpose prescribing the powers and" duties of said Board imposing the expense of maintaining and operating said Board upon said counties requiring the County Commissioners of said counties to provide suitable office quarters equipment and supplies for said Board authorizing the employment of necessary clerks assistants and other employees abolishing the existing office of jury commissioner in said counties requiring other County Officers and Boards to furnish information to said Board requiring taxables to furnish information into respect to their qualifications under oath and prescribing punishments for violation of the provisions hereof

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That For the better and more impartial selection of persons to serve as jurors in the several courts civil and criminal of counties of the second class there is hereby created a Board to be known as the "Board for the "Selection of Jurors" hereinafter called "Board" Said Board shall consist of the President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas two other Judges to be by him appointed and one member to be elected by the people The two Judges so appointed shall be Judges of the Court of Common Pleas except in counties where there is a separate County Court in which case one of the Judges shall be appointed from the Court of Common Pleas and one from the County Court The President Judge of said Court annually on or before December first of each year shall appoint two Judges from said courts as members of said Board. The member to be elected hereinafter called Jury Commissioner shall hold office for a term of four years beginning on the first Monday of January next after his or her election and until his or her successor shall be duly qualified. Said office shall be filled at the municipal election to be held during the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five. The Jury Commissioner shall receive an annual salary of six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500) payable in monthly or semi-monthly installments out of the County Treasury. The Judges serving on said Board shall not be entitled to any additional compensation therefor. The Judges appointed on said Board shall hold office for the term of one year beginning on the first Monday of January next after their appointment. Upon the passage of this act the President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas shall appoint a person from the public at large as a member of the Board to fill the elective position on the Board until the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six. In the case of the inability of any member by sickness death or other unavoidable cause to discharge the duties of said office or in case of neglect and refusal to serve thereon the vacancy so arising shall be filled by the Persistent Judge of said Common Pleas Court. The Board shall organize annually on the first Monday of each year. Two members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of Business. The Jury Commissioner shall give his or her entire time to the performance of the duties of said office and shall not engage in any other business.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

BILL RECOMMENDED.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

The SPEAKER. We will resume today's calendar, Bills on Final Passage, on page 7 of today's calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 372, as follows:

An Act reappropriating to the Department of Public Instruction a part of the unused balance of an appropriation to said department for the liquidation of the indebtedness of the normal schools contained in the act approved the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Appropriation Acts page twenty-three) entitled "An act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Executive Judicial and Legislative Departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one" as amended

Whereas by the act approved the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Appropriation Acts page thirty-three) entitled "An act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Executive Judicial and Legislative Departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one" as amended by the act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Appropriation Acts page thirty) entitled "An act to amend part of section two of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Appropriation Acts page thirty-three) entitled "An act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Executive Judicial and Legislative Departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one" the sum of eight hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($825,000) was appropriated to the Department of Public Instruction for the payment and liquidation of the mortgage and note indebtedness of the several State Normal Schools of the Commonwealth and the accrued interest thereon due the note-holders payment of which was agreed upon when the said normal schools were taken over by the Commonwealth and

Whereas the East Stroudsburg State Normal School has a note indebtedness amounting to forty-seven thousand three hundred three dollars and sixty-five cents ($47,303.65) which was incurred while the said normal school was in process of being taken over by the Commonwealth but after the date of the deed conveying the property of said school to the Commonwealth and

Whereas it has been impossible to make payment of the said note indebtedness out of the aforesaid appropriation by reason of the circumstances above related and

Whereas there is an unexpended balance of the said appropriation in the amount of seventy-three thousand three hundred and seventy-one dollars and thirty-eight cents ($73,371.38)

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of forty-seven thousand three hundred three dollars and sixty-five cents ($47,303.65) out of the unexpended balance of the said appropriation of May twenty-seventh one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one is hereby reappropriated to the Department of Public Instruction for the purpose of paying the note indebtedness of the East Stroudsburg State Normal School incurred prior to January first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one

Section 2 The remainder of the unexpended balance of said appropriation of May twenty-seven one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one to-wit twenty-six thousand sixty-seven dollars and seventy-three cents ($26,067.73) shall lapse into the General Fund of the State Treasury immediately upon the approval of this act

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1012, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of the Auditor-General for the purpose of reimbursing Robert E. Lamberton for moneys erroneously paid into the State Treasury

Whereas during the term of Robert E. Lamberton as Sheriff of Philadelphia County a writ of fieri facias was issued out of the Court of Common Pleas number four of said County as of December Term one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two number six thousand seven hundred and sixty-four under which said sheriff levied upon certain personal property alleged to belong to J. Winderman Inc the defendant in said writ but part of said property was claimed by Herman Winderman and an interpleader was framed which has not yet been disposed of and

Whereas on account of the failure of said claimant to file a bond in order to secure the release of the goods claimed by him from said levy Colonial Manufacturing Company the plaintiff in said writ obtained an order directing said Sheriff to sell said goods while said interpleader was pending in consequence of which said Sheriff sold said goods on June eighteenth one thousand nine hundred twenty-three after due advertisement and

Whereas upon receiving notice of said sale the Auditor-General under date of June seventh one thousand nine hundred twenty-three made demand on said Sheriff for payment of certain capital stock and corporate loan taxes due the Commonwealth from said J Winderman Inc amounting to the sum of five hundred sixty-eight dollars and ninety-seven cents ($568.97) out of the proceeds of said sale and

Whereas said Sheriff without personal knowledge of said interpleader by his check dated February fourth one thousand nine hundred twenty-four sent to the Auditor General paid into the State Treasury the said sum of five hundred sixty-eight dollars and ninety-seven cents ($568.97) before said interpleader was determined which mistake was due to an oversight of said Sheriff's deputies in not noting said interpleader on the Execution Docket of said Sheriff and

Whereas in the event that said interpleader is determined in favor of said claimant of said goods said Sheriff will become personally liable to said claimant for the amount of said taxes so paid therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of five hundred sixty-eight dollars and ninety-seven cents ($568.97) is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of the Auditor General to reimburse Robert E. Lamberton for moneys erroneously paid into the State Treasury as capital stock and corporate loans taxes of J Winderman Inc

Section 2 Said money shall be paid on the warrant of the Auditor General if after due investigation the Auditor General finds that the payment of said taxes should not have been made out of the proceeds of the sale of said personal property claimed by Herman Winderman but sold as the property of said J. Winderman Inc

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1040, as follows:

An Act to close out the affairs of the Mercer State Hospital at Mercer Pennsylvania by authorizing the sale and conveyance of the real estate and personal property of said hospital and making an appropriation

Whereas the Mercer State Hospital formerly the Cottage State Hospital located at Mercer Pennsylvania was established and title conveyed to the Board of Trustees on the thirtieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety primarily for the purpose of caring for injured miners in the soft coal fields in the vicinity of Mercer and

Whereas the soft coal mines of that vicinity have been abandoned thus relieving the Mercer State Hospital of the care of that class of patients for whose convenience said hospital was established and

Whereas excellent hospital facilities in nearby centers made easily accessible by improved highways detracted from the service offered by the Mercer State Hospital to such an extent that the Trustees of said hospital deemed it wise to discontinue its operation on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three and

Whereas the Board of Trustees of said hospital have entered into an agreement for the sale of said property including real estate furniture fixtures and other personal property to D. E. Vogan M. D. for the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Board of Trustees of the Mercer State Hospital is authorized to sell and convey the real estate fixtures furniture and other personal property together with the buildings thereon erected formerly used and occupied by the said Mercer State Hospital title to which is now in the said Board of Trustees to D. E. Vogan M. D. for the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00)

Section 2 The Board of Trustees of said Mercer State Hospital is further authorized to execute a deed for said property which when approved by the Governor and the Attorney General of the Commonwealth and delivered to the said D. E. Vogan M. D. upon the payment by him of the purchase price of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) shall vest in the said D. E. Vogan M. D. a good and sufficient title therefor and the proceeds of said sale shall be paid into the State Treasury for the use of the Commonwealth together with any unexpended moneys in the hands of the said Trustees paid to them in connection with the affairs of said Hospital

Section 3 There is hereby specifically appropriated to the Board of Trustees of said Hospital in order that they may finally close out its affairs the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the obligations incurred on account of said Hospital during the biennium beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one and the expenses of the said Trustees incurred since said biennium in pursuance of the duties of their official positions

Section 4 The unexpended portion of the appropriation of five hundred dollars ($500.00) appropriated to the Cottage State Hospital for Injured Persons at Mercer Pennsylvania by Act No. 63-A of the Appropriation Acts Session one thousand nine hundred twenty-three page eighty-two is hereby lapsed into the General Fund of the State Treasury

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move to reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 453, file folio 1239, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies under certain conditions to exchange unserviceable personal property of this Commonwealth for or on account of the purchase price of new personal property required by the Commonwealth was defeated on final passage on March 9, 1925.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill, as you will remember, is the bill that was defeated on last Monday night a week. It is the bill that permits the Department of Property and Supplies to trade whatever unserviceable articles they may have on hand for new articles. You remember I spoke against the bill and voted against the bill at the time it was defeated. I am asking now to have the vote reconsidered so that the gentleman from Bedford may have it amended. He has promised to amend the bill so that I think it will meet the approval of every one.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WRIGHT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 1, line 12, by inserting after the word "Supplies" the following: "with the approval of the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instruction of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill, as amended lie over for printing.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL.

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on the following Appropriation Bills, now on the Final Passage Postponed Calendar, numbered and entitled as follows:

House Bill No. 22, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Roselia Foundling Asylum and Maternity Hospital of the city of Pittsburgh

House Bill No. 290, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Saint John's General Hospital of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania

House Bill No. 318, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Spencer Hospital Meadville Pennsylvania

House Bill No. 634, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Northern Hebrew Day Nursery Philadelphia Pennsylvania

House Bill No. 641, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Orphan Asylum of the Holy Family of Emsworth Allegheny County Pennsylvania

House Bill No. 642, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to Saint Francis Hospital of Pittsburgh be extended for a period of five days.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. HALL, Mr. Speaker, I move that the time of House Bill No. 436, entitled:

An Act providing for the compensation of county solicitors

now on the Final Passage Postponed Calendar, be extended for a period of five days.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives, numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 24.

An Act making an appropriation to the Rochester General Hospital of Rochester Beaver County Pennsylvania

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendment.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 1, page 1, line 10, by striking out the words "to be paid according to law", and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "To be paid according to regulations and in the manner prescribed by law at the rate of three dollars ($3) per diem for the medical and surgical service rendered to and maintenance of each person treated in said hospital who is entitled to free service and for each day or part service such proportion of the aforesaid three dollars ($3) per diem rate as the part of the regular charge which the person so treated is not able to pay bears to the regular ward charge for such free service Provided however That no hospital shall receive compensation at a rate exceeding the actual cost of service per capita in the public ward of said hospital"

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?
